Madeline was in about a month again and she looks good. She told me to tell you hi.

"Why did you want to break my heart?" Will you please answer that question please. I would love to know the real reason! I still can't figure out why you broke up with me, I never did any harm. A lot of girls, boyfriends are away in the army and at college and they still go together. It's not that I wanted to tie you down from the dances and parties, no Bob I want you to have a good time but you could go out but not get serious. ~~But~~ And if you thought you

March 30, 1962

Dear Bob,

I just came across your letter and I thought I'd write now before the 11 o'clock news comes on TV.

Scranton is burning up once again. About 15 homes burned down and other business buildings, in West Scranton. The fire started from a mere brush fire.

Carlisle also had a few brush fires. Some kind of chemical plant burned down today. This place is in child's.

I guess this is the fire season because Simpson also had some ^{2.} fires. Two in two days. One was on the hill behind our house. Some kids are having fun in Simpson.

When I saw ^{they} fire up on the hill I ran up there to make sure it didn't come down. I told my mother I was going to dig a ditch between the hill and our house.

Eileen is in the hospital. She has been there since Sunday.
She had x-rays taken twice but still doesn't know exactly what is wrong. She doesn't know when she is coming home either.

Opie Sample's sister-in-law had another baby - boy. It weighed about 9 lbs. (big - eight)

The news is so now so I better go if I want to see the Scranton fire pictures. I'll try & write more in my next letter.

Always Dorothy

The latest report on the Scranton fire - 21 buildings were burned down others
were ~~destroyed~~ all messed up.
It's a pity to see these people homeless.

The farmer sent his son to college and the lad came home at the end of the first year jubilantly announcing that he stood second in his class.

"Second?" shouted his father. "Second? Why weren't you first? What do you think I'm sending you to school for, anyway?"

Filled with determination, the boy plunged into his books and returned home from his sophomore year with top honors in his studies. His father looked at him silently for a few minutes, then shrugged his shoulders and muttered, "At the head of the class, eh? Well, it can't be much of a college!"

Monday nite

Dear Bob

I'm trying something new - a Carbon Copy of the things I write to each of you.

I suppose you are back in your harness again.

We received your marks today.

We had a letter from Ruth today. They are selling their house at the Manor Club and have bought one near Silver Spring, Maryland. It is a Rambler - all on one floor - 2 bath and four bedrooms.

We took Warrick and Helen Wedeman with us yesterday and went down to see the Bear Creek dam and when we got there it was closed. So it was just a ride. It rained all day Saturday and Sunday and snowed last night, the ground was white this morning but it soon melted. Walter, Bill and Russ burned the big pile of trash, down by the creek.

on Saturday and some of the old hay too.

The three of us went to Church
yesterday morning - did you?

We got a Card from Rev and Mrs
Lewin from Florida - they are leaving on the 19th. They will be in Carbondale
May 4-5-6. He is going to Mary Charles + Fuddy.

There was a terrible fire in Scranton last Friday, 18 buildings burned and 12615 families homeless.
It was across the bridge from the Wholesale block on Lackawanna Ave.

I Can't seem to think of anything to write about tonight.

It was good to have you home
for awhile.

Well I guess that's it for tonight

Love, #

Wednesday afternoon

Dear Bob

What a delightful surprise letter and I had Monday morning in the mail!!!! The tray is beautiful and we do appreciate it very much. It looks so nice with the silver service. We appreciate your thoughtfulness very much.

Russell was home when the tray came. He has been out of school since last Friday with an infection in his knee. He is in the hospital now, he went on Monday. Thursday night when he went to bed he showed his knee to me. It was a spot as big as ^{around} ~~an~~ medium orange and very red and hard. Dr. Finneran lanced it Friday morning and started soaking it with hot salt water soaks. Saturday Dr. Pettinato took over because Finneran went to Chicago. Russ still kept soaking it and was to go back Monday. He had 2 penicillin shots on Friday and Saturday and had a penicillin prescription to take

Russ's knee trouble was caused by a bump but he doesn't know ~~where or when~~ where

When Miss Caffrey saw it on Monday she talked with Gettinato and advised us to have him admitted to the hospital. He has had 2 shots every day and is taking a pill of some kind. I just came from the hospital now and the Dr. told him that he can come home Friday. He doesn't have any pain but still has a dressing - wet towel - plaster bag - hot water bottle - and a towel around the whole thing. He is very uneasy, uncomfortable etc, he wants to get out of there. He doesn't walk except to the bathroom.

I had the Sunday School Class on Monday night and everything seemed to go off O.K. We served sandwiches, chips and pickles and cupcakes with fresh Coconut on top with 3 jelly beans on and a pipe cleaner for a handle to make it look like an Easter basket. I put the table in the 'stereo room' and (the stereo in the Club room) and we seated 16 at the table and Eliza Estabrook, Ruth Shea & I (the Committee) sat at a Card table.

your father was over to Lakeland Golf Course on Sunday and he had 96 players. It was very wet - when they walked on the greens water squirted out in front of them. We seem to have had weekends. He and Bill have been picking stone at The Homestead Golf Course, it is amazing how many have shown up.

Leslie Smith (Maude's husband) has put 8 hives of bees up ^{near to} where they one Chicker Cook was torn down. They are living in Carbondale now, he is retired. I had Maude, Irene Jiler and Flossie come up for an evening.

Last Sunday Louise brought us up a ^{Pink} portable mixer for our anniversary. And Olga gave us a "silver" salt & pepper shaker set and we got lots of nice cards. Shirley Corrigan brought us an anniversary cake, heart shaped - peach colored icing white orange blossoms, green leaves, 25th in ~~gold~~ silver candies and 2 silver rings, it is really a picture. - it was such a surprise.

We didn't go anywhere to Polkater
just to the hospital to see Russ.

Margaret White stopped to see how Russ was and what was the matter with him - Russ's name was in the paper.

I had a letter from Mr. & Mrs. Lewis.
They were to leave Florida on Monday and stop to see their daughter on the way home. He is going to marry Charlene & Freddy on May 5.

The horrible fire in Stanton started as a brush fire and it crossed the river and started the homes burning. The water pressure was very low and the firemen weren't able to do their best because of the low pressure. There is an investigation going on now of the P. Water & Gas Co.

Did you know there was a man electrocuted down in your neighborhood
at Rockville.

Isn't Liz Taylor and Eddie Fisher disgusting, I guess they'll never learn.

I had your pictures developed some of them are good but I would like each of you to take a good look at yourselves with a cigarette dangling
from your fingers - I hope you don't think this adds to your appearance or makes you look dignified in any way shape or form. I don't like it.

Will you please answer these two questions for me - I have asked before but - no answer
As I understand the markings, you must have a 2.5 to stay, is that right (end of Carbon Copy)

Your full term average was 2.00
" Winter "	" term av. 2.25
	Cum. av. 2.41

then you need to get 2.59 this term to make it is that right?

I hope you are aware of the fact - that you have to go to bed earlier so you can get up in the morning for class. You can't stay up till 2-3 or 4 o'clock and then go to a class or exam and be alert, that's when you make simple mistakes that you shouldn't. You sure have an "early" schedule this term.

What did you get for Phys. Ed. - wrestling??

Your girl friend, Carol, was sitting with Russ last night and tonight
when we went in at 7:30, she seems to try first one of you and then another and another — it's good ^{that} we don't have any more sons!!

How are you making out with the Teaching Machine? It sounds like outer space to me.

Your marks were good the last term,
good luck to you this term - Keep plugging.

Many, many thanks for the tray
and your thoughtfulness.

Hi Bob,

I thought it was about time for me to answer your letter of March 10th. Ceil, Elaine and I are catching up on our letter writing while we listen to Henry Mancini's Album. The music is just beautiful and very romantic.

What's new with you? Saturday night I went to a semi-formal with a nice, 22 year old guy from the F.B.I. We had a ball!

When were you home last? I was home two weeks ago and am going home this week for Palm Sunday and next week for Easter. After Easter I won't go home for a while.

What's going on with Dorothy and Donny. Dorothy said she's through with him for good. After Christmas Dorothy was on Cloud 9 because she went out with Donny. Then Donny said he would write to her and he took so long to write and when he did the letter said almost nothing. Donny hasn't know a nice girl when he sees one. What do you think?

Have you seen Carol Bianco lately? Who's your latest? You can tell me!

The Cherry blossoms are really beautiful this time of year.

You'll never guess what we found out today. Francis Gary Powers, the U-2 pilot lives at Hunting Towers in the West Building on the 4th floor. Maybe we'll run into him someday.

How are your studies coming along. I do wish you'd write your letters in English rather than French. The curiosity ^{up} of what they say is killing me.

I heard that Lakeland High School is coming to Washington on their class trip. I know quite a few of the seniors including Jim Peilly and Sonny Phillips. If they can leave the group we are going to invite a few of them over to our apartment.

Well, it's midnight now and just about time to go to bed.

Hoping to see you soon.

That's how  au bon ami, you ended your letter to me! Claudia

Dear Bob,

Well, how are things down at Penn.
State? Everything is just great here. I'm on my Easter vacation and did I need it!! I thought I would crack up before this week could ever get here. But I've kind of put myself together and feel fine now. I've got a lot of work to do over the break but it won't be that bad. I have a term paper due the first day I get back for Biology and also have a book report for History. I think I better get going before I wake up and find out it's Monday morning.

I also do go out to, you know.
Tomorrow night I'm going out with 6 of my girl friends. One of them is getting married in Sep. so we are taking her out to dinner and we also bought her a gift. You wouldn't want to know what it is - kind of personal. You know!!!

Wednesday, Janice, and I are going to the Cape for a couple of days. I hope we can find some place to stay that beach is kind of cold this time of the year. I guess it wouldn't be too bad with a little warm drink. What do you think?

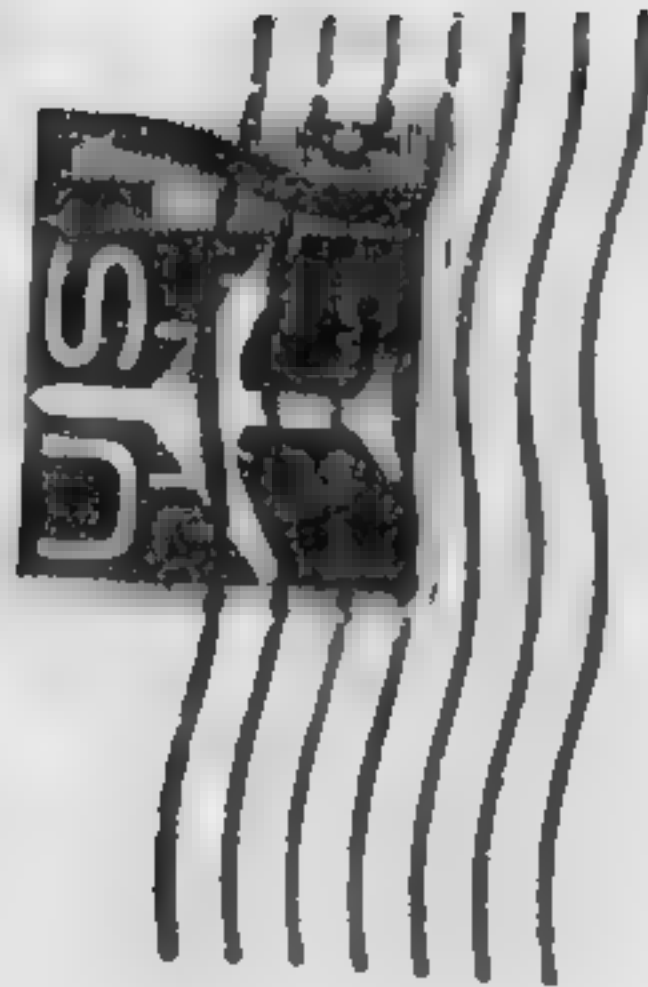

I really got a kick out of your last letter. It was great especially your new hobby - painting. I can almost picture that new creation of yours. I would love to have seen it. By the way, next year I am going to minor in the arts. I really love modern art and all those abstract paintings. And yours sounds abstract!!!

Well this letter is kind of short but I can't think of anything else that would be of interest to you. So I'll just say good-bye

The bonne Amie,
Sharon or Bunnie

P.S. Say hi to Earl. I get letters more from you than from him and it took you 4 months to write. HA! HA!
Well one way or another I'll keep in touch with Penn. State.

Friday Am
at the Lakeland ~~phone~~

Dear Bob

Well - I didn't write to you the first of the week like I said I would. We opened Lakeland last Friday, the weather has been grand except for strong winds the first 3 days this week. We have ~~been~~ ^{been} fairly busy. I come over every morning and ~~work~~ ^{work} with Bill around the Homestead and then he comes over in the late afternoon and I go home and get supper. This week we have been eating at around 7:30 but next week our summer schedule will have to start because of daylight saving time starting this Saturday night. There is an ad on the Sports Page of the Tribune today and will be one in the Times tomorrow.

Russell went back to school last Wednesday just for the one day and then Easter vacation, school again on Tues. Wed. and Thursday and now today and Monday off for Russian Easter.

Did you have a day off for Easter?

we received your letters the same day
I mailed yours.
Jimmy and Anika Russell have a baby daughter.

Eleanor & Joey were down, came Thursday afternoon and I went back Friday. We didn't see them. Eleanor called but no answer.

We have a Chatterline, it is in back of the flower garden in the peacock loop ~~point~~ direction.

The men spent days and had loads and loads and loads of junk and real work
that they picked up around the buildings.
The golf course is growing and coming along fine. The experts keep about next to all work for us by the week
now. He is a steady employee. He sold most of cows.

I get in the middle of a sentence and someone comes in and then I get lost.
The inside of the club house looks nice, it was varnished - the walls and floor.

Did you get the boxes I mailed
to you?

How dare you call us Grandma's Grandpa?!!
Just imagine, we have been married a quarter of a century. The tray does nearly match
the tea service.

How are you coming along playing the part of "Zouso"? Do you like it or just take it.

I haven't written the letter yet about the curtains. I have been struggling with them. The longer I wait to write the madder I get and the nastier letter
I'll be able to write because my slow burn is rapidly becoming a quick burn.

I put the portable mixer in the bottom cupboard by the sink - where the dog food and potatoes etc are. It works like a charm.

At last I have an answer to my question about your marks. Where did I get 2.5 from? I'm glad you are over and above 1.4.

Your 3 mid-terms on the 25 & 26 th are over - how do you think you made out?
Your letter with the memo to the Postmaster got here ok.

I am glad you ended your ties with Carol - don't you feel it was the best thing to do? I'm sure you can find someone more to your liking than someone outside your own class of people - not that I had anything against her personally except her statements "about your coming engagement."

I guess I have said all there is to say as to what we are doing so I'll close;

Saturday - 9:30 P.M.

Dear Bob,

Today I worked seven hours overtime. I don't really like to work overtime but the time and a half pay sure comes in handy. This is the first Saturday night I'm sitting home in quite a long while. It's almost 10 o'clock now and I don't know what to do with myself so I thought I would answer your letter and surprise you on my promptness.

I had a fight with Larry last Saturday night. Before we had the fight, he took me to B.C. to Lowe's Palace to see "State Fair" with Pat Boone and Bobby Darin. The picture was terrific! Have you seen it?

I received your letter on Friday and enjoyed it very much!

I'm anxious to know if you and Max made the football cheerleading squad.

you asked how my boss is. Well, he's just fine. He went to Los Angeles, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday and gave a wonderful speech. On Wednesday morning he called from Los Angeles to see if things in the office were all right.

We got a new guy in our office. He's only 20 years old-- single-- and handsome. We've been having a blast lately--especially when he dictated a few letters to me when my boss was away. Now don't get the wrong idea! I didn't sit on his lap!

Last week Lakeland High School seniors came to Washington on their class trip. My roommate and I found out that they were going to tour the Justice Building (FBI Bldg) at 11:30 this one day so the three of us (Darlene, Elaine + I) decided to meet for lunch and go to the Justice Bldg. to see the seniors. Well, we saw them! Among them was Donnie Phillips, Elaine's boyfriend.

We were amazed the way the kids were dressed. It looked like the guys had there old clothes on that they would fix their car in. The girls were dressed plain & had trench coats on. I really don't think they gave the people down here too good an impression of the school kids from Penna. I think the guys should have had suits on and the girls should have been a little more dressed up. But that's just our opinion down here.

When are you coming down here to visit us? It's really a nice trip down here. By bus it takes about 7 hours -- by car about 6 hours!

You asked about Simpson! Well, nothing has happened exciting there since the class of '61 graduated.

I was home for your Easter and then again the following week for my Easter. There was really nothing to do, but it was good to see my parents and my brother. I probably won't be going home for about a month or so. When do you get out of college for the summer? Are you going to help out at the golf course this summer?

How is Don doing with his studies? Give him my address and maybe he will surprise me with a letter.

Darlene Vabella, my roommate went home for a ten day vacation. Her mother had her 12th baby last week. Now they have 6 boys + 6 girls. Elaine also went home this weekend to see her boyfriend. So Carl and I have the apartment to ourselves this weekend.

There's someone at the door so I'll have to close for now.

Please write soon.

Un bon ami,
Claudia

Dear Bob

I don't know very much to write about but I'll try to say something.

The Golf Courses are coming along nicely the grass is really growing now.
I'm over at the Lakeland course every day. Pa cuts and works around the Homestead and comes over late in the afternoon or if he has to cut Lakeland he comes over early.
Bill works every day, he cuts the Homestead fairway with his tractor and he picks stone. Russ picks stone or cuts some of the greens after school.

Ruth is leaning the house, gain.
Pa expects to open the Homestead the weekend of May 26 - it will be open for Memorial Day. We don't have the room fixed yet! There is a lot to be done yet to get ready.

The Tammels & Porters were over to our house last night looking over the place and I gave them a complete tour of the house. They think it is all wonderful especially the kitchen. I had just repatted some veal to so I gave Lain and Ethel some.

We are busy on weekends but the week days are slow yet. I hope they pick up soon.

May I take your order for a blackhound
pup ^{for} somewhere around the first of July?

Charlein and Freddy were married a week ago. It was a beautiful wedding so I hear. She had 4 attendants, they were married in the Church and had the reception down stairs in the social rooms.

I received your bronzed mementos of your Childhood days. Thanks.
Have you been receiving the money I have been sending to you, I have sent it every week.

Did I tell you that Leekie Smith, Maude's husband, has put 8 hives of bees at the Homestead?

The peacocks are beautiful, their tails are so big and pretty. They haven't laid yet. They holler at any little sound or light even in the middle of the night.

Your marks sound pretty good. Keep it up

I have been reading about and listening to on T.V about the Cheating in Exams at Colleges, it is frustrating. I hope you remember the things you were taught, what you get by Cheating in an exam will not help you because you do not know it and if you allow someone else to cheat you are just as guilty as they are. I would rather have you get a lower mark and get it honestly.

I hope you and Don are expecting to help us out this summer, we are all going to be on a busy schedule.

Tuesday

We received your letter this morning. It really was filled with "news". About your cold - when you are taking a doctors medicine you should not take aspirin and especially not Quistan. these medicines can work against each other and might make you sicker than you were to start with. - I'm glad your cold is better.

Yes it would have been nice if we could have been at school last Sunday for Mother's Day but it is just impossible to get away. But I got your Card and knew you were thinking about me.

About your pants situation, remember you didn't want to buy any at home you wanted shorts and would buy them down there - and you had plenty of money out of the $50 to get them because your books wouldn't cost very much - well I wondered here is a check for $20 - $5 for this week and $15 should see you through some pants so spend it for what you need and if you owe anyone pay them back.

You sure do Complicate things as to where you will be living next year. Don't make the Mrs Dick's life miserable by pestering her too much well, I guess this is it for this time.
Love mom

As to extending your New York trip I don't know how many days we can spare you. Things sure will be busy. Your father hasn't seen the letter yet so I don't know what he'll say.

As to your saying that you sound snobby about the other boys not being invited, that is exactly what I have been trying to get across to you about associating with people of your own kind. You needn't feel snobby or better than they are but just be glad you are what you are and pick your friends accordingly. I can't place Ricky + Dave - what are they protestant, Catholic, Jewish, Italian, Russian etc???

I had the sheets laying on the counter and I went back to sign off and signed ~~was~~ the wrong sheet so again

Dear Bob,

Just a short line to you. Hello! How are things at Penn State? It sounds more like a prison than college. You know?
Penn State

Everything is kind of the same here, nothing real exciting to write about. You can compare letters with Earl to get any little bits of news about Cumberland. By the way, do you ever read my letters.
Earl has never really told me one way or the other. I hope not. It will be kind of embarrassing. I'm not really as mean as I seem to be in some of the letters. I'm meaner.

Good luck on the cheerleading squad
I hope you make it. While I am talking about sports tell Earl that I have had trampoline in P. Ed. and love it.
Isn't that a crazy way to spell that?

Bob, you often mention Doug Rogers, who is he? I'm not too new yet.
But just love to know about

all these people you and Earl write about.
Another thing you sign your name on the envelope S. Robert Powell. What is your first name? I thought it was Robert,

Well I think I can't think of anything else to say. I have to read Earl's letters. Some of them are kind of interesting. He can surprise you sometimes as you must already know by now. Good bye for now and keep your stale standing.

P.S. Keep your eye on Earl and keep

My dear Bob,
You are probably home by now
- one year of college over! It hardly seems possible.

Thank you for the very nice letter you wrote us. We thoroughly enjoyed it.

I hope you had a fine time on the New York trip.

We've had a wonderful year of music
and lectures.

We attended all of the Philharmonic Concerts
and all of the Chamber Music Concerts.

Such treats! We heard several distinguished artists who were special soloists with the Philharmonic Orchestra led by Mr. Josef Krips.

Being in a city^{like} Buffalo affords many cultural opportunities not available in a small town.

My work has been most rewarding at St. Mary's School. I've been very busy trying to carry on a heavy schedule but I am enjoying it.

I've attended the B.O.S. (Buf. Ornithological Society) meetings and the Audubon Society meetings whenever possible and have been able to go on a few bird trips but not as many of the latter as I had hoped.

We've had delightful birding at our dinette window where Cardinals, Chickadees, Nuthatches, Juncos, Hairy and Downy Woodpeckers have been our daily visitors.

III
Early in the winter we had one Evening Doo-back and Glen there as Ben Jay's feeding
but no tree sparrows and I've missed
them. They are so dainty and so lovable.

Jay is very busy doing secretarial work for Camp Longacre (a private camp near East Aurora, N.Y.). Yesterday we spent the day there and kept out on a tea for parents, ex-students and prospective campers. A delightful situation on the Cagivine Creek where horse back riding is the high feature.

I'm so glad you've been happy at State - hope the year has been a real success for both you boys. So many contacts! It is wonderful learning to know many worthwhile people.

Everyone has something fine to pass

on to others. ^{IV}

If no can be our best, then we'll receive and accept only the best from others.

I can't keep the dates straight but I concluded that since Elizabeth is home you two are probably at home too.

I'm sorry there wasn't more snow in your home area to make the Sport Center a thriving venture but no surely! Let snow up! Here and then some!

My best to Mom & Dad and to Don

Sincerely

Dear Bob

I Can't seem to Concentrate long enough to write a decent letter but I'll try now

We are busy, busy. We opened the Homestead on the 26th and we are doing pretty good. Lakeland is picking up now. Today is very cool.

About your New York trip. I think if you go on Wednesday with Lee, John and Tom then stay with Rocky & Dave Wednesday night and Thursday and come home Thursday night. This will be about as long as I think you should be at this time of year. We really need a little help and don't forget it to help yourself too.

We are in the process of getting the Club room fixed and painted and new rooms built etc. It's really quite a mess.

I am not sure as to the time we'll be down for you but I imagine it will be early ~~Sat morning~~

I am inclosing a bus schedule
from Carbondale in one of your letters - it will be either meenie mini mo - which one it will be

Do you want me to bring our suitcases when we come down? If I don't get an answer I won't bring them.

I have laid this pen down 20 times
to wait on someone for something.

I am very pleased with your feelings as to your marks. I hope they all turn out to be as high as you expect. Good luck in all your finals

Russ gets out of school the 8th too. He went with his class to Rocky Glen last Thursday.

When you have spare moments think about what you are going to do with Cockatoots & parakeets unless you want them to go to college
next fall.

Love

at the beginning of the Spring Term at Penn State 1962, SRP moved up to North Hall - much better housing than at Nittany

Spring term, SRP became a member of a group of former Nittany 29 residents who decided "to have fun" and tore a Cherry bomb in a can of flour
into the lobby of Nittany 29.
We did so one night - no
real damage done but flour
all over the place. On our way back to North Hall,
the Campus Police caught 896

half of us and we were all suspended from school for one term (Fall 1962). I stayed at the Homestead and took a political science course. Winter term 1963 I returned to Penn State.

What a horrible experience. It still pains me today — 27 years later. How could I have been so stupid! I know how I got involved with the project — it was the need/desire to be part of a group, and so I went along with the group! — 897 decision to carry out things out.

During my Fall term at home I veritably hid out in the back bedroom - although I did work at Lakeland Golf Course that Fall. During that Fall term, Aunt Edna paid a visit at the Homestead. She must have been horrified / scandalized by the errant behavior of her grand nephew, although she never said anything about the matter, naturally. I'm sure she understood. She realized very quickly that I learned my lesson, I'm sure. Her letter

What a lesson I learned! If I

(that I am a great loner and have happened.

Step by painful step, we all grow up.

Ho!

So what happened? My parents said that they thought the decision was unfair, and will not bother me about it. I can move back up to school this September with you, so things look all right here. Bill's sister was talking to Perez and he said that the two guys in the middle did not have the right attitude during the trial which is why we aren't having a retrial. Nice work Si. The thing that was wrong is that you and Chip smiled and didn't have the right expression on your face when you returned to the scruffy room in Olde Maine. But thats the way it goes.

Things also look all right as far as the N.H. trip are concerned.

I start work tomorrow.

Well there is nothing more to write since I have only been home for two days.

WRITE IMMEDIATELY!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!! I'M DYING TO FINISH OUT WHAT HAPPENED.

Keep cool and clean (with ammonia and cleanser)

Ho Bi!

Good news! One of my friend who lives in an apartment is joining the Army and has some modern furniture

1 - 2 piece sofa, each piece about 5-6' long

1 - coffee table

4 - chests of drawers - 2 styles

1 bookcase

2 chairs - some kind of woven material

2 single beds

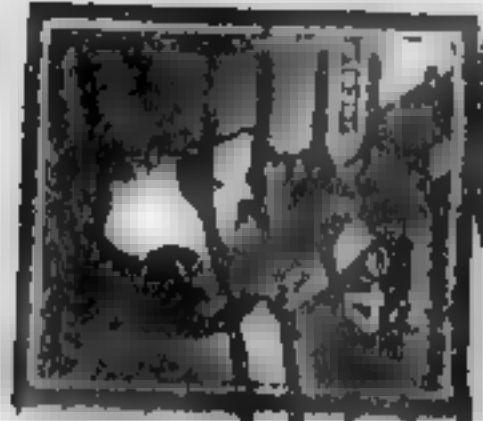

plus some other assorted goodies
as things stand now. We can use them and when we are done with apartment life, I will store them at home. This means that we can get a half-decent unfurnished apartment at a low price.

Once again, as usual, I got screwed with the average — 2.00, anyway? ^{improved}

sound like a good idea?

Dear Dick Robert the I st

Don't bother writing to the dining hall to get a meal ticket, it can't be done.

I figured that I'd take about 2 days off from work and go up to school to find out what is happening, and get an apartment. I'll have to go on a weekday. (not weekend), and not the 4th of July. Since I don't have a permanent schedule for work yet I don't know when it will be, but we should figure on sometime in the 2nd week in July. Should we meet somewhere along the way to school or meet at school - When I go up, I take the tpe to Ft. Barry and then up 322 to State College - now are there any points along the route that we could meet, or what? Anyway write and tell me how you would go. So save the 2nd week in July, I think ~~now~~ ^{that} is the best time so we can get something good.

I still haven't heard from Chip, and

Bill still doesn't know what he is going to do

I'm going to sign up for Soc. I - my dear says I should take the courses. I at a time

Anyway write and tell me how the 2nd week in July sounds, I will find out as soon as possible what 2 days I can have off.

P. S. Are you going to get a job up there? ^{in the fall}
I think I will, in fact, my parents insist on it.

Shalom Bob,

I was so glad to hear from you and I am sorry that I have not written earlier. But I have been so busy. Let me explain from the beginning. I have so much to tell you.

You said in your letter that I left school without saying good-bye. Before I left I called both you and your brother but there was no answer. My brother said that he saw you leave with your parents so I figured you had left. Excuse me for being so rude but I figured you had left. O.K.

I thought I would never get my parents to leave school. They just loved it. After I checked out we ate lunch in the Hub. Then we went down town. They bought me a Penn State sweatshirt, a light Penn State jacket like your's, a Penn State T-shirt and a whole mess of other things. They were quite generous.

Then I took them out to the house and showed them around. They loved it. We finally left Penn State at 3:30 in the afternoon.

We got to New York City about 11:10 and we stayed till about 2:00. It was too late to see any shows but it was fun. My parents showed my younger brother the Bowry, Statue of Liberty and all the other landmarks.

We had a good time and left for home.

We got home ^{at 11:30} Sunday morning and I haven't stopped till now. I was glad that my parents liked Penn State so much. They want to take me back in September and I hope they do. They also raved about you and what a good guy you were. I don't intend to mention your episode because I think it would be foolish.

I am working for the State on the high way. What a job! We do such wonderful things as paint guardrails, lay tar, grad in drainage pipe and all other goodies. I don't mind it too much although I work with a bunch of idiots. One never passed the third grade. They talk about such stupid things so I don't say anything. But I make good money and have good hours. I work Mon. through Fri. from 7:00 to 3:30. The past few nights I have been working at Hakey's Hotel Farm, an eating resort. I worked there a few summers ago and I help them out now and then. I helped the chef and make deserts and salads. My brother washes dishes and is going to work there for the whole summer. I worked from 6:00 to 9:00 and make $3. So you can see that I keep busy working but that is not all. I have I have home for one night yet since I came home.

Tonight is the first since I started work.
I average about five hours a night of sleep.
Do you remember Jan? She is Sandy's cousin and I know that I told you about her. Well she arrived at camp Sunday. She is a writer at Hildoy Chick Farm and after I explain a little more you will see why I don't mind working there. We have been good friends for three years and each year I have come a little closer to her. Well this year it has been great so far. We have gone out every night since Sunday and in a few minutes I am going to join her up at work when I get my brother. Last night we went for a horse ride and had a fabulous time. The night before we went bowling and the night before that we went out to get something to eat. I know I like her very much and this summer should be a real great one. We are going out tomorrow night but I don't know where. It was her birthday Tuesday ~~and~~ and she was 20.
She is a junior at Bates College in Maine
(she is short, pretty and has a neat
can probably tell just by reading this letter how it felt about her. it will keep you in touch and let you know what happens.

So now you can see why I have I written sooner but it has been on the go. I hope you forgive me.

Now to answer some of your questions. I haven't received my marks yet and I don't know what to expect. I know it is an improvement and that is the most important thing.

I haven't written to them but I did hear from her. She is fine and I don't know what is going to happen on the first. I am going to write to her so I will let you know what happens. Jan doesn't help this ~~the~~ problem but I don't care. It will work out.

I miss our old school a great deal and even more so my good friends. But it won't be long and we will all be together again. I figure that if it stays busy it won't be too bad. But there is no doubt about it, I wish I were at home Hah.

I am glad you are going to work with Doug. He deserved me a chance and I told me that you were ⁵ing to be roommates. I think it will work out just great. Have you heard what Bill or Chip are going to do.

Let me know. Thanks.

I will help you with Math & but you will also be heavily relied upon. I know we will get through it so I am not worried.

I am glad your parents took the news rather good. I was guessing that they would be no worse.

By what you said in the letter of yours
you had a great time in New York. I only wish I could have been with you.
And I wish I had seen the shows you did. My chance will come later I hope.

(I have to go get Jan. Be back later.) Well I'm back and it is now 12:05. I got Jan at work, we went and got an ice cream cone and then we went down to the camp. Jan had arrived and we have been talking since then. She is just like herself again and she asked me to apologize for her because of the way she acted when we saw her last. We talked mostly about school and now I want to pack up and return.
She said we have only 20 days left. Haha!
Everything turned out great and I hope everything continues like it is right now.

of have to get up at 8:00 and am going to cut things short for now.

The Summer Playhouse is putting on some great musicals and I am to see a few. Flora Drum Long;
which I must see, in fact, I want to see all of them; Bye Bye Birdie, The Music Man, The Music Maker, which I read and it was great;
Finch; The Streets with William Bentz; and one hasn't been announced. I hope I can see them all.

I saw Ben Hur again at the Outback for movies and, of course, I loved both. I think Jan and I are going to the drive-in tomorrow night. Breakfast at Tiffany's and Midnight Love are playing.

The only book I read was The Music
Maker and I thought it was superb
I think this is everything I want to say for now. Tell Dad I said hi and tell him to drop me a line. Tell your parent
I said hi and also Carl.

Tell me everything you have been doing and all about your love life. I hope it.

Drop me a line when you have a chance.
I enjoy hearing from you and I wish we were all together in 118 Holmes.
Remember.

Stay sober; single (unless ??), and in trouble.

Until I hear from you:

Adieu.

Ho Criminals!

We've only been partially ~~to~~ again. Ed sold some of his furniture, the rat. He sold the coolest thing, the coffee table. Anyway since the time will be during the 2nd week in July for apartment hunting is definite (I'd it?) I will have to call you to let you know the exact day, because I don't know when. Probably it will be a Tuesday, Wednesday or Thursday, but I'll let you know when I find out. We will have to meet at school in the lions den (hut) or something. I'm afraid that my mother might come, but I am trying to discourage her. I f your car doesn't run fix it, or borrow your parents car, or even drive a golf cart if you get hard up for wheels. You might even consider lowering yourself to public transportation (Gooch! what a rank thought.)

My trip up there was successful except that I didn't have time to look for an apartment. ^{My way write and tell me for sure that you can make it so I can continue planning} — Doug

Halom Bob,

Boy, do you have a problem.
I have and with my medical advice and we have decided that something must be done immediately. First, we think you should leave New Guinea. Go anywhere but do leave. Next get rid of your car. Get anything.
However you should see what it has for a car
at the moment. We have no reverse nor first.
What a blast! You and I have to plan everything we do days in advance so that we don't have to use reverse. So consider yourself lucky. From your letter, I have made the assumption that you came from a horrible childhood and because you suffered from physical problems (the arms), I now make the suggestion that you get married. Marry someone who will share these problems and miseries with you. I am sending one.
Faye Risher on the next plane to your present home and I am sure that everything will be O.K. She is really quite pretty and her figure is simply divine.
I know you will share many happy hours and days together. Please let me know how everything ends, Mr. Silas (H.). I have great sympathy for you and more in all my experience, which is two days. Have I ever heard of such an unnatural problem.
I hope I have helped you in some small way, however I doubt this very much because my last and only ² pistol committed suicide with a razor blade. Please do not let me down, I would like to have a record of 1 and 1 instead of 0 and 0.

Sincerely Yours,
Dr. Houlton.

Station Again.

Thanks for the letter I was very glad to hear from you. Your problem was great.
Did I laugh I thought it was quite clever. However, everything the Powell is to do is clever, smart, and all that sort of thing I learned this during my Freshman year at Penn State.
I should say that I was brainwashed.
I think the latter is more appropriate.

How can you stand working all that time
on that golf course. I would go insane!
Don't you have any fun. Those hours you put it would kill a horse. And then your car tumbles. What a nut! What a shit say before was very true. We have no reverse and no first, only second and third. What a blast we have! I would be damned if I had to live my summer on a golf course. Tell him to give you some time off. Tell him I said so.

I am glad you made Dean's List. In fact I am very happy for you. Just think! I know someone who made Dean's List. I still haven't got my marks so I can't tell you how I did. I am very anxious to find out and so are my parents.

You think you have a tea, you should see mine, it is unalterable. I have started negotiations in my house and I have to eat after everyone else and have to lie in a bed and sleep. In fact, I am almost as dark as John Cooper. And it is only July. Wait until September. Just call me back for short.

You asked how the estate employee is.
He is sick. At the moment we are constructing the building for the ~~new~~ future which will house our state truck and our road grader. What a flop! I have nothing about making a foundation, setting the drainage, laying the cement, making the forms. But I am learning. I guess I don't really mind my work. In fact, the more I look something like a building. All we have done at the moment is the floor and the frames to the two doors. Another group started building the building in January and they are still working on it. So I know what we will be doing for a while. Why don't you come and help me? Wouldn't that be great! Maybe between the two of us we might understand what is going on.
Because for the past two weeks I have been lost. Real lost. Enough about this!

Did Day get your apartment. And we know all about it when the place. I am really looking forward to the fall of him. I heard from Day mainly because of them & wanted to hear. I hope to drop him a line if I get a chance today.

You asked me if I am anxious to get to 40 if I can't wait. I just live for Sept. 16, 1962. I miss you that so damn much. And now in a fortnight, it just can't wait. Tell Don to drop me a line. I miss the gang too. Have you heard from anyone lately? I hope you can come up in Sept. 16. I should have a photo. Keep me posted?

It has been fun every night except one. Things look good. As long as they don't want to go back to school. We were having a good time. You asked me if I am getting much. Yes, I am getting quite a bit. But I have school and all that jazz to look out for. Anyway we have a fabulous time. I must tell you this. The other night Jan and I were lying on the dock and smoking out to beat the band. It was a beautiful night. You know, moon, stars, a little breeze. Well anyway all of a sudden this boat passed by the dock about five feet from us and they had a light. And they put the light on us. Now we astonished. It was two times and all they said was 'What do we have here?' Then they left and we said,

"What a mean trick!" Did we laugh! It was so darn funny. He saw The Children's Hour.
She had seen it and, of course, I wanted to see it again. Other than that we have done the usual things. Towards July eve, we went to the woods and had a good time.
As I said, everything is going good.

I read a great book last night and finished it this morning. The name of it is Enjoy The Fighting by Yael of Japan. It's comparable to Exodus. More like a continuation. I really enjoyed it. Have you read anything lately?
Have you seen any movies?

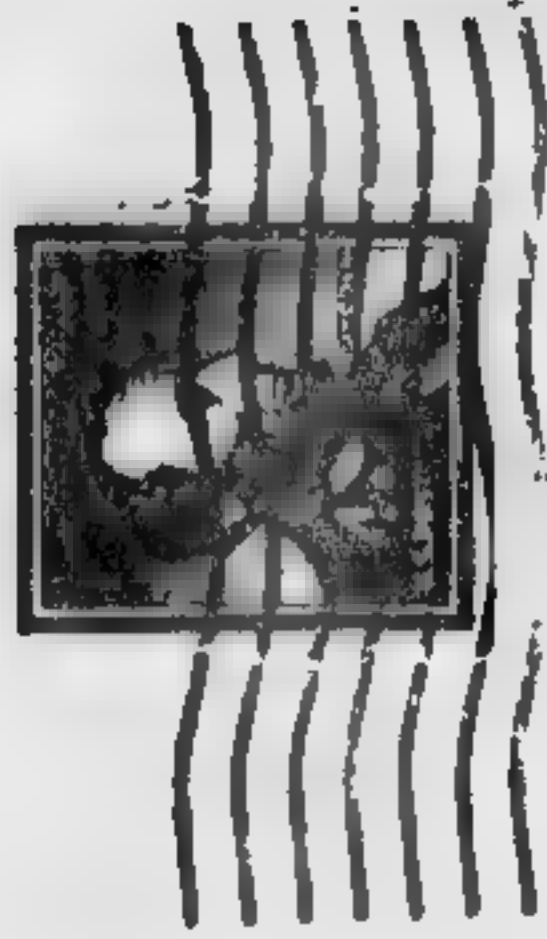

I have seen a couple of good movies on T.V.
that is ~~worth~~ about all. (My brother just said something to me and I lost track of what it was writing). Entertaining. See you later.

Well Bob I guess I have said everything that I can think of at the moment. Drop a line when you get a chance. Tell Don to do the same. Say hi to everyone for me and until I hear from you again, I close with Shalom.

THIS HAS GOT TO BE PERFECT! If you don't get to go up I might have to stay home too, or else room with Chip, which I doubt, or Craig Ugh!

I got a letter from Earl today. 1 page, both sides, and am I glad it was no more. I nearly went blind reading it! All I could get out of it was that he was having fun. I wonder what fun is, I'll have to look it up in the dictionary

Anyway get to work on that letter, have your brother help you with it, maybe you could consult a psychologist about it. But do it immediately AND SEND ME A COPY BEFORE YOU SEND IT!

Maybe you could threaten to run a plow through the greens if they don't let you come.

Dear Bob:

I am sorry that I was not able to see you when you were on campus yesterday, however, I feel it quite urgent that I should inform you of our feelings in regard to your being in the college community during your period of suspension. Our policy has always been that living in the college community defeats the entire purpose of the suspension action. For this reason, we must say that although we cannot dictate where you may live, your being in the college community may prejudice your opportunity for reinstatement. I discussed this with Dean Bixby (since Dean Free is away on vacation) from the college of Education and he supports this point of view.

If you have any further question in this regard, please feel free to communicate with me.

Sincerely,

Daniel R. Leasure
Assistant Dean of Men

Si,

Forget it! All is lost, I got a letter from that SQB. Easy Dan Leasure, and he says that I can't come up, but there is a slim chance that I can. What I have to do is finish all three correspondence courses by Sept 10 and get a good mark in each of them, and my dean will call together the Senate Subcommittee to review my case, and try to get permission for me to come up to State College to work. She is also looking around the State for a PSU grad who is running a kitchen so if the SS doesn't let me come up, I can work in a hotel somewhere else so I can get credit for the course. So I don't know what I'm going to do, I think I might just work part time for Lintons this summer, and full time on the Corres. Courses. Because even if I can't get up to school this fall, I must get away from home. I got my first two lessons back and got a C on the first, and a B on the second.

My dean says there is absolutely no chance of you getting up here this fall, because you don't have a good reason to come up. But Write the letter anyway, it might be worth the trouble, but you will have to make it a real tear jerker.

The only reason that I am getting special consideration from the factory is that if I don't get this course working in a kitchen ~~it will be a disaster~~ I won't graduate until next December '63

So as far as you are concerned -- Good fucking luck BUDDY!01

Keep cool, but don't freeze,

Dear former future roommate,

Good news! My father said to me tonight that he thought the decision to suspend us from school was unfair, and so do many of his other friends. So he is going to talk to a few state senators, and possibly Gov. ~~xxxxxxxx~~ ~~xxxxxxx~~ anyway, the governor, to see if he can get me back in school as a student. So if I get in, I guess you will be able to make it too. I'll let you know what happens....

I saw Johnny Appleseed on Wednesday, and he said to call him Ben Casey because he is now in Pre-Med Ha! him? Anyway, he says that he took Econ 14 by correspondence last summer and still has all the lessons, and will give them to me

So what has been hapening to you? like what I mean is ~~xxxxxx~~

I wrote another letter to chip and told him that my resignation from the glorious IVth will be effective in 2 weeks unless he writes.

Si,

So what the hell is it with you? Like what I mean is WRITE!

I finally got around to seeing that girl ^{who} ~~that~~ lives near Craig. Surprisingly enough she turned out to be all right. with the girls that Craig associates with I was really amazed. We had quite a bit of fun, drank and all that kind of jive.

My mother is in my room right now, so I can't say anything against her. She walked in and said let me see some of the letters that youve been getting. Imagine, the gaul of her. Fortunately I have thrown out most of the letters that I've gotten, but she found a few goodies. Like one where Earl said for me to say hello to Ivan for him and while I'm at it to kick him in the old scrotes (not the word he used, but you can imagine.) when she got to that point she let out a snort. Right now she is rooting around my trash can, and looks like a pig looking for garbage (pretty good comparison huh?)
Soon she will start reading this letter and will either try to tear it up, or else make some remark.

That is Not nice!

--- Anyway like it's about time that you write. -- Get the hint?

Cool it.

Dear buddy-

Was surely surprised when you did not sent your signed acceptance agreement and I had to cancel your good assignment in Pollock. Then again I was surprised to receive your letter and the reason for your not returning in the Fall.

When you are re-admitted for the Winter Term or whenever, you should apply requesting Pollock. Depending on the availability, you should be assigned there. I will be on the lookout for the application. Maybe we should assign you into Nittany and I can keep my watchful eye on you? See you.

Uh S1?

Did you write the letter yet. I got mine done, and it is the greatest tear-jerker that you ever saw. If that doesn't work, nothing will. Oh God! it is so great. I never thought this would happen. Oh well it didn't yet, but I'm even considering praying.

Now be sure to mention these things: "the fact that you are sorry for your part in the whole thing. Make a plea for them to seriously consider your return in the fall, what you have been doing so far this summer etc. etc. REALLY MAKE IT A TEAR* JERKER DON'T EVEN MENTION THE PUNISHMENT ITSELF, OR THAT IT WAS TOO ROUGH. make sure that you mention that you have really learned something through this (not to go near Nittany)

Anyway make it cool, tear-jerking and about a page long. don't forget to have your parents write one asking for the S.S. to reconsider. And don't forget the 2 letters from reliable friends.

Good luck,

Doug

Apokeepsink - July 27th

My dear Bobby

Last night when I opened my "Weekly News", almost the first thing I saw was the notice about you being on the Dean's list and your rating of (3.58). I swelled with pride!!! I'm so glad! This is wonderful news.

How gratifying this is to you and it shows how you've applied yourself - most rewarding!

Congratulations, my fine Freshman, you've made a victorious start in your initial college year and this start is filled with promise.

You say you've been very happy in the experiences of this ^{II} past year - that is good news.

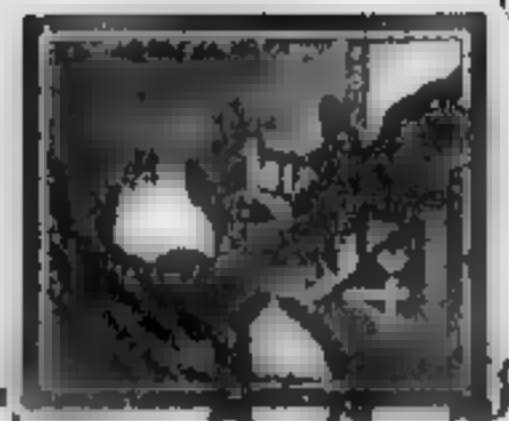

How many new avenues have been opened up! As one's aesthetic side is developed, life takes on a multiple meaning. -

Your trip to New York - your increased interest in music - in art - in literature - in history plus all that you acquire from the varied worth while contacts at the university - all these have stimulated your mental growth and (I'm sure) your spiritual growth.

I'm very proud of you and proud of the quality of your chief interests.

With your Mother and Dad I'm glowing over this report.

God bless you, Bobby - now and always

Halim Bob.

off the taken me three days and four nights to read your mighty report and now I can answer your thesis. How the hell could you write so much?
Compared to your letter, this will only be a footnote.

I am so sorry that things didn't work out better at Penn State. Maybe everything will work out. I sure hope so. Bob, you are invited any time to come up to Ithaca the old lady! You need not ask.
There will always be a place for you. I hope you come up for all the home games.
There is no problem here. I will save all my 7th & 8th papers and so forth. So don't worry about this etc.

What a hell of a summer you are having!
I would do something, anything but stay on that golf course. Come up and see me and then you will know what summer is like. Tell Dad to take his golf course to New Guinea! Golf is big over there. I think I would go insane.
Do something Bob!

If you got any marks. I got a 2 & 1.

If it wasn't for lunch I would have got over a 300. The old fucker gave me a C I will kill him if I see him. I was so damn mad. I got an A in History and Phys. Ed. I got a B in Art. (Ha! Ha!)
And I got a C in German and Spanish
I improved so this made me feel good.
I got a letter from school which said
I was accepted for my second year and that I was in the top half of my class. This made me feel real great.
My all-time is a 26 and this is it too
God. I'll have plenty of time to improve. I would say I had a real good year.

I saw the Miss Thurner contest and I was disappointed also. I don't remember who I wanted but it wasn't Miss England. I thought Miss Thurner was very attractive. I do agree with you on the rest of your selections. This is the only T.V. show I have seen so far this summer. I just don't have time.

I did not appreciate your remarks about Germany. And when I see you I will tell the shit out of you. You

you will wake up!

I am still going with Jan. Things are just great and we are having a blast.

Bob will be home in a couple of weeks and we are going out to dinner. I can't wait to see you. I will let you know what happened.

Boy you thought Bill & Susan were bad!
You should see the bunch of farmers I work with. I can't wait till it is all over. For the past couple of weeks
I have been working at Hubory & Hub nights and it is a real busy time.
Keep me strong from Penn State and Amanda (Tell Don there are only 47 days left.)

I got a letter from Jerry and Alan.
They are going to write you to come up in August with him and see me. Jerry hasn't said whether he is definitely coming or not. If he does, if you can come.

What a blast we would have! I got a letter from Doug. He is still the same He said he is going to appeal to Mr. Lawrence. I can see it all now. He went to Wash D.C. and stayed with Craig. He said there was a mistake. However, he said he did have a good time. I haven't heard from anyone else. How about you?

I haven't bought any clothes yet, but I am getting ready to go on a trip. I can't wait.

Well Bob this is all for now.
Write when you get a chance. and I hope things look better. Don't chase too many good cattle and lay off the work (I only smoke a carton a day.
Pretty good huh?) Tell Don of said he and want to see or hear from you, keep looking for a way to get back to Penn State this fall.

Ho Si,

I just got a call from Jerry Spears who didn't get his average and is moving into an apartment and wants me to be his roommate! I said yes, emphatically. He asked if I know anyone else who would want to move in and I said possibly you. The thing is that we won't know until around the end of August if we are going back. The thing is if I make my average by some miracle, I would want to move out of the dorms, and if I was in Nittany, I would not have much of a chance of moving out. The same goes for you. Besides, you know what kind of an average you got in Nittany, and I doubt that you can still get your room in Pollock. So do you think you could convince your mother and father that it would be better to live in an apartment than Nittany? Besides with three of us, it would be much cheaper, and it would probably be for only a term.

Anyway, write and tell me. Did you send a letter to Chip yet?

Cool it,

Doug

Mr. B. Robert Powell

R.D. #1

Carbondale, Pa.

Si,

Like I finally found out what is wrong with Chip, I was planning to go to New York tonight to celebrate. Anyway, I called Chip to find out what some of the good places in town were. His Mother said that he wouldn't be home till tonight, then asked who was calling, I told her and she said that he was away until the end of the summer. Well this made me wonder so I called Lynne, and she told me that the bitch doesn't want him to go with her, and doesn't want him back at Penn State. So she (his mother) has evidently been confiscating all mail from penn state friends. Is that a kick in the head?

1) Lynne and Chip are going to write ~~the letters~~, and Lynne is going to write the ~~one from his mother~~. It is the only way he will be able to get back into school.

F2 — Anyway he has been seeing her on the sly and been quite successful. His mother thinks that they have broken up, and is now trying to get him into some grubby/^{small} colleges.

So from now on, send all your mail for Chip to

Lynne Fleming
5 Blanchfield Court
Ho-Ho-Kus, N.J.

Yes that is really the name of the town.

I'm thinking of writing Chip a long essay about people who take other people's private mail, telling that it is a federal offense, etc. Then his mother will probably read it Ha!

Oh! that bitch really has me pissed off beyond words. I'd like to wring her grubby neck.

So if you write to anyone who you think will be writing

to Chip, tell them to send it to Lynne.

Cool It,

Donny

Oh god! Did I have fun in NY - Things started swinging at 3:00 when the bars closed we picked up some girls, and went to a real Village Type party - God!
lesbians all over the place - That was really rank - had fun anyway

Mon. I just called Lynne, and Chip.

#1 Chip's mother enrolled him in Hope College in Michigan - he is acting like a zombie - his mother wrote her letter and the rest will be taken care of. He figures that by doing that, he ~~will~~ will only have suspended suspension on his record.

#2 They are just about broken up sent mail to Lynne anyway and she will get it to Chip.

His mother makes him ~~get~~ get in by 10:00 - 10:30 every night and has him under her thumb. I want to go up there and have a long talk with him and try to bring back his revolutionary spirit.

I wish you would write him % Lynne, and try to talk him into going back to PSU.

Hope college is small - only has local Fraternities - has a lousy Poli Sci dept, - and to put it bluntly - blows.

anyway write him and see what you can do - Lynne has just about given up and I'm on the verge of it myself

• Cool it again

Long

Good afternoon fellow fugitive from justice,

I was wondering if you have written to Chip yet. If you haven't, get to work. Ivan and I are going up there on the 11th of August to have a talk with him to convince him to put up a fight to return to PSU, and we want him to know that he still has friends at Penn State. So write him anything, tell him what happened to you all summer. ^{send it to Lynn} and try to convince him that Penn State is better than Hope College. More statistics on Hope College. Coed, Holland Mich. Run by Reformed church, founded in 1866 has 1000 students, and 75 instructors, no national fraternities, lousy Poli Sci dept, and any other derogatory things that you can think of. OK? thanks.

Do you think you will be living in the dorms in the fall if we get in, or do you want to live with Jerry Spears and ^{me} I in an apartment. The things I used to convince my parents that Apart. life was better is: If I make my average I would not be able to move out of the dorms until the end of the year. I would have a better chance of getting involved in trouble in the dorms, and that would give me a good chance to get expelled. I would have to live in Nittany, which isn't too good for the average. You could use all three of those excuses, with some variation. Anyway, write and tell me what the verdict is.

I figured you might want to know about our dear friend and buddy Coopey. His parents decided to commit him to a mental institution. Of course Jerry didn't feature this, so he left home FAST! He lived with Oberfield for 3 days, then Don's parents saw through Coopey, and threw him out, so he moved in with Harvey Shoemaker, and has been living there for 3 weeks.

Harvey finally got mad, so he and oberfield called Coopeys parents and told them where he was, so they are coming down to capture him so they can put him away at the funny farm.
I almost died laughing when I heard that...

I was thinking of a rotten thing for you to do if your parents don't let you move into an apartment, You could plant crabgrass on the greens! That idea has been in my mind ever since th e first time I played golf.

I must quit this action and go to work. 10PM - 7 AM horrible huh?

Like Good evening Sir Cye,

Like you will probably go out of your mind before the letter from EASY DAN and the scruffy crew arrives. They are not due to have the meeting until the 3rd week in August. Real nice of them isn't it? I kinda thought that it was rather considerate of them, since that gives us a matter of days to find living quarters, and pack.

Oh yes, you mentioned a few things in your letter. One of them was " How do you like the old graduation announcement envelope I used -" The answer to that is -- I didn't. You forgot to put a stamp on it, and it cost me four cents. that's why I didn't like it. Another thing is the french statement at the end of the same letter. Now god damn it, You know that I'm in HFS and am not expected to know what that means. Ha! I knew what it meant! Ha! fooled you! It means I will see you in the fall and until then stay cool. Actually we HFS students are all very smart we all have out masters degree in philosophy, Math, Political Science, Psychology, Phys Ed, and Aero Space Engineering. We are working on our doctors degree, and are carrying this HFS to fool everyone. We are really afraid everyone would be jealous of us if they knew how intelligent we are. Now I am confiding in you to keep this a secret, because I am not allowed to tell anyone about it. so please don't tell anyone else. Now since you think you are such a great french student, translate this. (It is just a few sentences that just came into my mind at the time.) (It is taken from when I was a professor in a school in france. I am speaking to my students)

Mes Chers'elè ves, nous etudions le français depuis plusieurs mois. 'Commençons MAINTENANT à étudier l'histoire et la littérature de la France.

Pretty tough huh? I'll give you a hint. It concerns the history and literature of France. Does that help? I thought it would. If you run into any other problems with French, just ask me, I speak it fluently. I also speak german, Latin, English, Hebrew, Greek, Arabic, Chinese, Russian, Spanish, Cuban, Mexican, Brazilian, Lower Slobovian, and of course Canadian.

I did get all that garbage from school, and am saving the bill so I can send it off as soon as possible. I'm glad to see that your parents are becoming impossible, so are mine.

We will probably get Suspended suspension from the SS I'm not sure what will happento Chip. He will probably get Sus Susp. put on his record. Leasure did not guarantee anything. There is just a good chance of Sus Susp.

And now for a few more french words to close this letter. This is the best part of the letter. I hope you understand the deep meaning. Je suis, tu es, il est, nous sommes, vous etes, ils sont. Wasn't that interesting?

Cher Cy,

That's all of the French that you're going to see in this letter, and that is probably incorrect.

Today is my day for writing many long overdue letters. It was good to hear from you, although your letter contained much bad news. I am really sorry to hear that you will not be able to have the apartment next term, but I'm sure that you'll be able to come up for a week-end or two to see the Nittany Lions, Roar.

From what I gathered from your letter you're learning quite alot abouttthe care and up-keep of a golf course---don't work so hard!?

I am also turning into an ash--over a pack a day, but that's nothing new for me.

This summer I was suposed to have worked for Bambergers Dept. Store; but I was fired before I was hired. It's a long story which I will not go into now. I then got a job for Gold Bond Stamp Co. It was a great job, twenty college students were employed there. The work was very easy and I had a great time. The pay was terrific over $ 2.00 an hour. But as you can probably guess by now I was fired. The boss put it this way, "--to much socializing and not enough work." I guess I'm just not cut out for work; although I did work for six weeks and made oodles of $$.

As of now I am on vacation. I have been going down the shore, to the swim clubs, and to the races; where I have only lost money. Not only am I unlucky at keeping a job, I am unlucky at gambling!

10/11/11

I plan on taking a couple of weeks off from my agenda and visit Dave, and perhaps spend some time in Canada--French Quebec of course!

If you should run into your brother among the many holes and traps on the course, say hello for me. (or I should say Bonjour.)

Keep in touch with me, and perhaps I'll see you if you come to school for a visit next term. Till then;

Shalom,

Ho Silas Robert,

I'm sure that I go around impressing everyone that I am a sex fiend hound, a dope fiend, and alcoholic. that must be why my dean has such a high opinion of me, along with my high school ~~principal~~ principal, teachers, Minister, and just about everyone else except your mother. I would like you to tell her that I am very insulted with her judgement of me, if she hasn't read it already. Furthermore you might mention it that it is a federal offense to read letters that are not addressed to you, unless given permission by the person who receives the mail.

Now that I have gotten that out of my system, I can tell you that Jerry Spears does have an average, its just that he can't afford to live at Alpha Sig.

The reason we won't know about getting back is because they are not going to have the retrial until the middle or end of august. I don't know why.

I have nothing more to say except that your mother should take a little more mature outlook on life. If she really wants you to stop associating with me, she could send you to Hope college in Michigan. I hear it is a very good school if you want to run away and hide from the world. And it will give you a very sheltered academic life where you can become very narrow-minded and have a very immature outlook on life. I understand Mrs. Schmidt is conducting a night course in the Ridgewood High School so that other devoted (?) mothers can learn the tactics of how to break the child away from his friends.

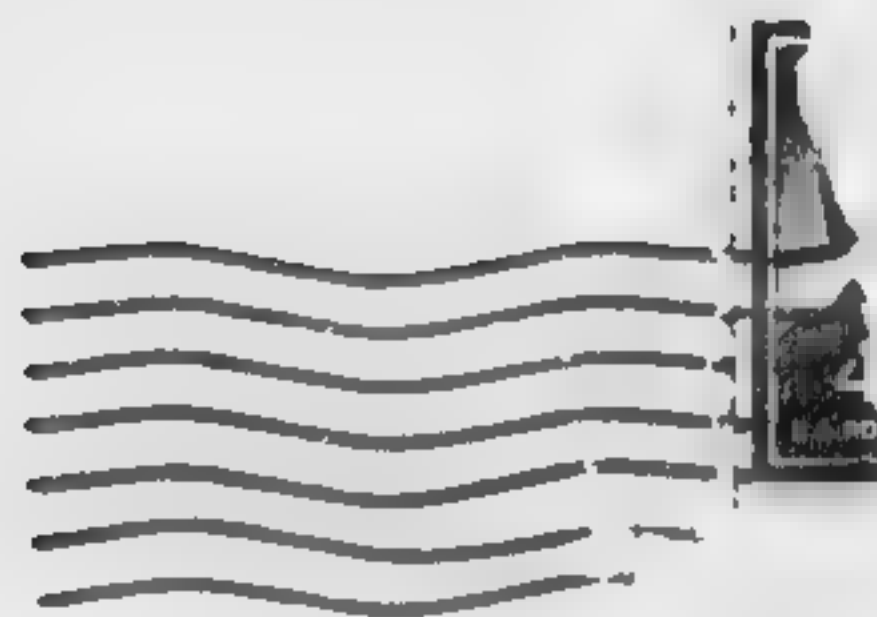

It contains such valuable courses such as letter opening 41, 369,425, and there is even an eight hundred course - 804.
There are many other courses given, so I suggest that your mother write away for the catalogue. The tuition is the same as that of Hope College. I would like to recommend Mrs Schmidt as she is very qualified in this field.

I hope you noticed the instructions

wouldn't be any confusion ~~in~~

Dear Bob:

Yesterday, August 9, 1962, the Senate Sub-Committee on Discipline met to review the case in which you were involved because of two circumstances concerning problems in curriculum. In spite of the inconvenience which these problems pose, it was decided unanimously by the Committee that the original decision of June 7, 1962, be sustained. Therefore, as before, your suspension will terminate at the end of the fall term, 1962.

The Committee hopes that you are taking advantage of correspondence courses which are available to you while you are on suspension.

Our best wishes for your success when you return for the winter term, 1963.

Monday evening
August 12

Simply overjoyed with your letter of Saturday last. Just a bit of a note to re-assure you of my impending visit. As far as I know, M. Chat is no longer in existence; and, if he is still living, he must be lying, bound and gagged, in his room, with only a small hole in his trusses, large enough to insert a lighted cigarette. The last time I saw Tom, he was boarding the Carbondale bus with all the aplomb and intent of Henry Morgan or Captain Kidd boarding a Spanish galleon.

I am afraid to call the abode of Lorraine & Family for fear of extreme entanglements with Mama Chat. Besides, I think it would be better if you would jot off a note to him, inviting him for the weekend and saying that you have also invited me. Tell him to call me about departure time, etc. That ~~was~~ way our favorite "ego" won't be overcome by the fear that someone else has formulated the plans.

Concerning ~~depart~~ "Departure, etc." I will leave work at 4:15 Friday afternoon (Aug. 23) and pick up my grandfather's car. Right after supper I'll leave for Carbondale. I imagine it will take about a hour to get there. I am not too keen on the directions once I get up past Scranton. You do live live on Route 6, east of Carbondale, don't you. If that is right, then I know the way; otherwise you'd better give me directions.

I still haven't really tracked down Peg + Jan yet. I called Peg's mother one evening. She wasn't there. But the woman who answered said that the girls have migrated again. This time they have gone to Wildwood.

Just got word from Norm.
Med school is out for at least ~~#~~ two years. He will graduate a bio-chem major and will go for his masters degree right away. U. of Delaware.

Guess I'll close now and get this off in the morning mail.
See you about 7:30 P.M.

Hello, or should I say O Hell,

I assume you got the joyous news, This is the ultimate example of injustice that I have ever seen. How that scum ever got to be the Asst. Dean of men is beyond me. He is two-faced, a liar, and an all around clod. First of all he said the decision against us was unanimous. Well first of all I know for a fact that it wasn't. My dean said that she was on my side. Bill's dean was on his side, I don't know about your dean. I can't imagine how anyone like Leasure could possibly sleep at night knowing that he is such a louse. This is just another example of where he says one thing, and does another. I can't believe it, it is too low to be true.

I'll write again when I gather my senses together so I can figure out what to do, and when I have time.

Cumboldt, Pa

Ho Si Robert the bitter,

I really don't give a damn what your mother thinks of me but I figured she might open the letter and that would cure her of it.

The dirty rotten no good farmer~~x~~ is Wesley Drummond. That new nightly practice that you call a 10 minute hate sounds like a good idea. The idea is not new however it will be a daily occurrence around 1984.

Concerning the shaft that was slipped us by Leasure made me give up all hope with PennState. I am completely disgusted with the administration there And do not want to have any part of the school. I am thinking of writing a long letter to Leasure, and telling him exactly what I think of him, and then asking for the remainder of my general deposit. In other words, I am not returning to Penn State. Today I went down to my local Navy recruiter and signed up. Tomorrow I will take the physical, and on August 31 I shall leave for parts as yet unknown. In the written test I got an 84 out of 90, which puts me in the top group, and gives me my choice of just about anything I want. I am going to go to cooks and bakers school and if I get a high enough score on another test, they will send me to Cornell for their Hotel Admin. course~~x~~, which does not compare to that shit HFS that Penn State offers. I don't know if I'll make it to Cornell, but even if I don't, I'll still get some good training in the cooking line while I see the world from a porthole. They asked for three names of people who might be interested in joining the Navy, so I gave them your name, Chip's and Bill's.

So if you get any information sent to S. Robert Powell, you can think of me. By now you are probably in a state of shock that I would do something like this, well it is all the truth, and I am going to be there for the next three years.

Like don't try to convince me not to join, because when ~~xxxx~~ you get this letter, I will have been in the Navy for one or two days, and will not be able to get out. So if you say anything, say something good. The thing that I don't like is that I won't see anybody from school again, probably, unless I come up on leave for a few days, which you can be sure of. Meanwhile, continue writing, because you do write cool letters. And I'll think of you while I am in the whore houses in London, the Gambling houses in Monocco, the turkish baths in Turkey, the gas chambers in Germany, The Synagogues in Israel, The Colesium (sp.) ~~Pixixxxxxxx~~ in Rome, The Lourre in France, and the pool of vomit in my bed when I get seasick. Anyway at least I'll be able to laugh at you when you get drafted.

Your next letter should be quite a winner, about the best yet. Anyway, write soon, I guess I need not say that.

The correspondence courses are a BITCH! Question answered.

I also hope we can continue to be good friends too, because where I am going, I doubt that I will be associating with the college type, and it would be a refreshing change.

We had a blast in N.J. Ivan went up to the door, and said he was John Cooper, a friend of Chips from work. Mrs Schmidt said that when Chip wakes up, she will tell him that John stopped in. Chip woke up, and told her that it was us. We waited for a while then Chip appeared and motioned us out to the rear of the apartment house. He had to start up a car for some lady, while he was doing this Mrs Schmidt comes running out screaming " It is all a lie, just another one of Lynne's lies, everything is second hand information, dont believe a word of it!!!" Of course we continued beliving what Lynne told us even more than before. Then she jumps into Ivan for lying about his name, saying it was decietful (Ohrist we were both ready to give a powerful rebuttal to that.) She also said that She was raising Chip to be an honest, trustworthy person. (see above remark in parenthesis) Meanwhile Chip is saying " Get the Hell out of my life mother, I've taken your shit all summer and have had enough of it." (I guess the letters put some fight into him.) Then! the best thing of the day, Mrs Schmidt stood behind the exhaust pipe of the car, and Chip goes vroom vroom vroom vroom vroom vroom etc. with the engine and covers Mrs. Schmidt with greasy black smoke. Ivan and I turned around and laughed our balls off, and Mrs Schmidt walked away. Later she came out to tell Chip he had a phone call. Of course he didn't, but we arranged to meet him later at the local park. Anyway he is breaking up with Lynne because he is getting tired of her. Kind of a shame, but thats life. He is either going to muskingum or PSU, probably Muskingum, and I don't think there is much we can do about it, because his mother refuses to send him to PSU. Then I got home and saw that letter, which ruined the day.

Keep writing,

Halom Bob.

I am sorry that I have not written to you sooner, but I have been so god-damn busy and the time really flies.

Your last letter was a real scream. I am now convinced that come September we will both be in State College. Of course as hell hope so. I know it will all work out.

I have so much to tell you I will probably end up writing a newspaper. First let me answer your questions. I got a letter from Bill and he had sold one vacuum cleaner. He got a new job and guess what he is doing. He is working in a Jewish poultry factory. Almost dead from lung fever. He has Saturday off because it is² the Sabbath but he has to work Sunday. I don't think he means for the job too much. That was about all he said.

I got a letter from Dan. His average was a 3.52. He has a 3.55 all and he got a scholarship from the alumni association for the rest of his days at Penn State. What should we do for him? I think we should send him back with the campus paper?
His address is 56 Alexander Road, MEAS
Cherry Point, North Carolina. Give him hell? I got a letter from Doug and he told me about what has happened to Chip. Boy did he get a kick in the ass. I am going to drop him a line and see if I can put the fight back into him. Bob please explain something to me. He and you said he was going to room with Jerry because he didn't get his average!

June. Was it great! And on the way home two trucks threw up all over the dam car. How they drunk. We finally got them sobered at Rody's house and got home at 4:00 Sunday morning.
This really hit well with my parents.
I wasn't too drunk because I had to drive but I didn't let the opportunity pass. We had such a great time. Last night Rod and I went out to eat and had a fabulous time. We ate for over an hour and a half. The food was just great. We had a chance to do a lot of talking and we have become such great friends. She has done so well in New York City. When I go back to school, I hope I can see her the

I've seen all the great plays and I only wish I could say the same.
She said 'Amen' it was great. She wants to see Milt and Honey
I told her that you said it was so great. I hope you can meet her.
I know that you would like
her. Well, someday.

You, Jan. She is fine. We still see each other and go out quite often. We were getting quite close and of that trouble keeping things under control. But it did. Instead the baby is up for adoption. He looks just like you. Good. How
you. Now all kidding aside everything is fine. We had a beach party
a week ago last Sunday and what a great time we had. Twisting in the sand, Beer, hot dogs, Beer, fun.

more Beer, come on the cobb. and more Beer. it was like Fort Laurensdale. We had a Whist. The evening before we had a buffet supper at my second job. We had Lobster Beer, danced, Beer, told jokes, and more Beer. I hope I will see Jan tonight. I hope you meet her (when you come up (are you?)) because she is the greatest girl I know. I love her.

I got a letter from Sharon and it gives me all the moment. no more than female. This is fine. She is having a good summer and said to say it to you. Have you heard from her. That is all on this front.

At the dance last Saturday night
I met this girl from French Belgium.
She was 23, not very, very pretty but so sweet and she had the most beautiful accent. Could she speak French? I wish you could have been there to interpolate. She likes swimming in the moor and is as hot as all hell. (Almost like the Queen. Remember? How can we ever forget.) That night after the dance and I had dropped John off at his house he noticed Dave's headlights on and went to tell him. Dave had gone out with the French girl.
He waited in the house and it was dark, he thought Dave was in bed and when he went into Dave's bedroom, and he found

Tilton, New Hampshire

Have and the same in bed. What a scream! The funny thing is that a week before John had taken the same girl in bed. Alid you ever hear anything so funny in your whole life. I laughed for hours. I hope your mother doesn't read this letter. But I just had to tell you about Tilton in the summer. I sure hope you come up and see the old hole. (and not the French girl's H.H.H.)

Just Dick Story is playing next week in Leona and I can't wait to see it. Everyone who has seen it said it was so great. Have you see it. I (I hope you can read the scrawl)

I am reading Lucy by Meyer
Levin. It is very good. Courtroom drama. I want to read The Carpetbaggers and Dear and Glorious Phyllis.

Samuel is playing on the record player. How I love that score.
I hope it can see the play.

Well, Bob, I think I have come to the end. I hope I haven't bored you. Say hi to everyone at home for me. Don't chase too many golf balls. Ha. Ha! Drop a line when you get a chance. Try to come up in September and 11

Tilton, New Hampshire

I know that I will see you in September. All your love, Bob.

Your good friend
Earl

P.S. And you said Germany was bad.

The wedding is only two weeks away. What a time that will be if I can't wait.

Stay sober and live a little. Ha.

"I can't wait to see you!"
Let's just go to the corner.
O.K.

Good Evening civilian,

At this moment I have about 45 hours before I raise my right hand. Then I will be shipped out to Great Lakes M Ill. for Boot Camp. For a while I was considering being a cook, but I changed my mind. Now the big rage is electronics! Me? Ha! Anyway I'm going to try.

When I find out what my address will be, I will send you a postcard or something like that so you can write. And God damn it you had better write, or I won't defend you from the perils of communism!

Oh Hell! You must have everything all confused about Chip. He is the prick. Lynne is just a victim of circumstances she has been the most devoted girl that anyone could have, but unfortunately Chip didn't realize that. Chip will probably be going to Muskingum this fall. Anyway he dropped her, and it has really affected her. She has lost all kinds of weight and is a nervous wreck. Anyway to sum up the whole case, Lynne is the goodie, Mrs. Schmidt is the baddie, and Chip is just an innocent Bystander who has been brainwashed against Lynne.

I decided not to send the letter to Leasure, I am going to have a talk with him as soon as I'm done Basic training. I will have a two week leave then and will want to come home and visit PSU. I figure I will go to a football game, drop out of school, get my bike, try to get the suspension erased, and then tell Leasure what an absolute SHIT he is.

Ha! I got a brilliant idea. Do you think you could make it to the Calif. or West Va. game. It would really be cool if the 4 unfortunates could get together again for a weekend. We could sleep in Nittany or something like that b and really have a ball.

Anyway I will send you a card or something telling you my new address, and when you write there, don't screw around with the name or anything like that, because it could get me into a lot of shit.

Anyway stay cool and all that noise. By the time you get this I will no longer be a civilian, so here goes the last time I sign my name as a civilian.

Sincerely yours,

Douglas C. Rodgers
isnt that thrilling?

Silas,

Today was the big day for Douggie. As far as I know he was sworn into the Navy at about 2 2pm. There seemed to be a sigh of relief in this household due to the fact that my parents don't think that Doug is the greatest influence on me . ; ; ; ; ; ; ;

I just got back from the air port. Douggie baby didn't chicken out- as a matter of fact he was put in charge of the whole group it was his responsibility to get the group together after lunch and transport them to the airport and also to get every one on the plane.

I suppose an explanation is due for the typing employed in this masterpiece. I just got this typewriter last night and before this time I had typed very little. It is my graduation present from high school.

As you probably know I thought that Doug's pants would be much worse to cope with than mine. I certainly found out that this proved to be about my biggest mistake in judging people's reactions. My parents have given me a much worse time than Doug's. I am allowed out once a week.-----

My mother just informed me that I am not allowed to write a letter when there are lessons to be done. Well damnit I'm sick and tired of the crap that she has been giving me for the last two months. I really wish that I had enough money to put myself through school because I would leave home in about two seconds. I sure wish that I had never come back to Phila. This is about the closest thing to Hell there is. The old lady is on my back again so I'll write more some other time. I'll give you my adress so that if you would care to write it would be nice to know how you are doing.

I wrote you a letter on Friday but now I cannot find it. I hope my mother didn't find it. Dougie baby left on thurs. and was put in charge of the group. It was his responsibility to see that every one arrived at the Great lakes base at the same time on the same plane. As far as I know he made it. Before he left he had some real nice wild parties that are the type that Doug usually throws.

On Friday I went to Penn State to see my sister graduate. I expected to have a real dry and boring weekend, but as it turned out it was the wettest and more fun than I had all summer. I got to P.S.U. at 9pm. and at 9:30 I was seated smack dab in the middle booth in the Skeller. Little did I ever think that little baby face Bill would get served in the Skeller. I stayed there until it closed and then took a six pack to the apartment. (I was staying with a boy friend of my sister) After I put this down the gullet I decided that it was high time I had another talk with Dan. (The prick) Well at 4 in the morning there isn't much doing in Old Main. I went to Dan's window and since he wasn't in I decided to show him what I thought of him. If you go to PSU in the next week or so look in the dean of men's window and see the juiciest hunk of hay fever SPIT that ever came out of a humans mouth. It is also filled with contempt I have been wondering how you are being treated by the world. As for me this letter sounds like I have been having a blast all summer but that is not so. This was the first bit of fun that I have had. I am allowed out once a week, and from now on not until I finish my correspondence course. My girl friend's birthday is on the 14th I hope I finish by then because I'm hitting New York .

^{Sailor Talk} ~~FUCK~~ !!!

Anyway I have been here for a week and am having a blast. The reason for this is that this first week consists of all kinds of tests, uniform, shot, and haircuts receiving. The rest of the time we lounge around the barracks and shoot the Bull.

Bob,
If you think that you are not going to spend much time on the correspondence courses, you have a big surprise coming. I am taking Arch. graphics and have gotten exactly nowhere! I expect to finish it in about 10 days from now. I have wasted an awful lot of time but it still takes about 12 hours of concentrated effort each lesson. I know that most courses are not as time consuming as EG*3 but it still takes a good bit of work.

On Sunday one of my buddies left for Keystone College. I really felt bad since he was refused from East Stroudsburg State. He was accepted at Keystone after classes started. To think that someone who is not really College material goes and someone like you who really has the smarts stays at home for just the first JAG. It really pisses me off.

As for the next ten weeks I am taking 2 more correspondence courses and then will be returning to PSU for the winter and spring terms. I went to the University of Penna. and was told that I must pull a 3.30 all U. in order to transfer to there from Penn State. UofP has the best architectural school in the country. The Dean said that the suspension should not have too much effect on the committee if I go back to PSU and maintain a perfect record in discipline. It isn't too easy not to get any quite hours violation especially if I have a prick for a councilor, which with my luck will probably happen.

The old lady just came in the room and informed me that I can't take the time to write a letter since I have so much work on the E.G.-3. She gets worse by the day. All she has said about the suspension is that if anyone finds out it will look bad for her ----- of course all that I will ever be is a truck driver.

Doug hasn't written to me yet but I think that he would like us to get together for the Cal. game. As soon as he writes I shall tell you what he is planning.

Min Chai Si!

That's enough French for today.

Today is my day for writing some long over-due letters.

alot has happened since I wrote to you this summer.

The job I told you about,
ended ~~as~~ a couple of days after I had written you. I then took it easy for two weeks, when my vacation was interrupted by work. I got another job, which was just fabulous — an assistant to a Hypnotist! I did office work for him and occasionally I was his subject for one of his shows and experiments.

But now I am back in a room
and in that never ending busy cycle — study & sleep! Sometimes I wish that I was taking it easy —
like someone I know.

As you probably know, Dave is my roommate and Tom C. is in the same Dorm.

This term I am taking French 3, Pol. Sc 10, Psy 1, Speech 304, Phi. Ed and ROTC.

I understand that you are taking a correspondent course in Pol. Sc 10, we must get together and compare notes!

You must come up for ~~one~~ one of the big week-ends, I am sure that you could stay in either Lambda Chi ~~or~~ or in the Dorm with us! (If you
but you would like to slum in Pollock's.

Dave is trying to get on the Tribunal, and I'm quite sure he has it made. If he does get on the board, the first thing we'll do is to recall your case and reverse the decision. — Brewster will be your attorney. (By the way, Brewster is leaving Penn. State in a couple of weeks.)

It's now getting closer to 1:00 P.M. and I have a table reserved for me at Lardie (wishful thinking)

Keep me posted.

Tuesday evening
October 9

Mon cher Silas!!

I finally decided, after all these weeks of silence, that I would just have to sit down and write to you. I understand that my French on the card I sent to you from Quebec City was completely and utterly gross, which, I guess, figures.

You will be pleased and overwhelmingly happy to note that today I sent a little check to the Alvin Theatre for four tickets to "A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum." We are going to sit in the orchestra (between the fifth and the nineteenth rows, if I get what I asked for) during the evening performance, December 12. Tom wants to see "Little Me" with Virginia Martin (Heddy from "How to Succeed") in the afternoon, but we couldn't find anything about it in the "Times", so we're holding off on that phase of the operation until we get further word from the producer.

Tom has been wondering if you got his card yet. He sent it last week, but Don says you haven't gotten any word from any of us.

My courses have been, so far, rough! My Math 44 prof can't do half the problems in the book. My Speech 200 teacher is an avid Democrat who does nothing but cite examples from speeches by Roosevelt, Stevenson, William Jennings Bryan, Dilworth, Eugene Debs, and Pat Brown. For my first speech I was thinking of reciting Lincoln's Gettysburg Address, because I don't think he's ever heard it before. My Physics lecturer, Dr. Webb, has been nicknamed "Wandering Webb." Watching him during lecture is like watching a tennis match.

My Physics lab instructor came into class 15 minutes late last week. Consequently, no one finished the experiment. Physics recitation is even better. I have an incoherent Chinese named Yau. For the first five weeks in Phys Ed I have bowling. I started off really good in there; first two scores, 180 and 182. Then I slept through the next class. Of course, ROTC is the same old exciting course. We had a quiz last week, and we are going to have another one tomorrow. This should be a snap though, since Tom, in one of his weaker, more altruistic moods, stole a copy of it for me. Love that roommate!!

Tom wishes me to inform you that he has guess who . . . that's right . . . Mr. Marshall for French, leopard Volks-wagon and everything.

Bulletin: start brushing up on your classical music. There is a guy down the hall who thinks he knows absolutely everything there is to know about classical music. He talks about nothing but his stereo, his tape deck, and his 15 speakers. He does know a lot about it, but yesterday I had Capriccio Italien on the stereo and Joe didn't know what it was. But, as I said brush up on your music, because we told him all about you, and now you have a reputation to live up to.

Congrats for making Dean's List last term. We knew you had it in you. We didn't know where, but . . .

Donald was here today. He told us that you are coming up for Syracuse weekend. Whether you know it or not, you are sleeping here. In fact, we're ordering your bed tomorrow.

We both got some new albums since last we met. Tom got A Funny Thing etc, Anything Goes (which is a real riot), Once Upon a Mattress, Tchaikovsky's Concerto for Violin in D Major (yes, Tom,, and

Romeo and Juliet. I have Romeo and Juliet, 1812 Overture, Marche Slave, Capriccio Italien, Grand Canyon Suite, Swan Lake, Sleeping Beauty Suite, New World Symphony, The Moldau, Tchaikovsky's Concerto No. 1, and a musical which I am sure you will like, Song of Norway. It is a musical in which lyrics were put to Grieg's music. The last number, the Finale is The Grieg Piano Concerto. I also have the original cast of Carousel on tape.

Tom is up to his old tricks again. Tonight in the dining hall he leaned back and broke the back of the chair.

Well, with several bluebooks and a speech coming up, I'd better get back to the books. This weekend, I'm going to the Army game, which ~~means~~ means I will not get too very much studying done. See you in ten days. Au revoir.

Lee

Dear Si Babes;

Si,

Just a short note to straighten out a few questions. I understand that there will be many visitors up at school this week-end; and this has caused a bed shortage. Tom told me that he had already gotten you a bed, and that you were staying with him Homecoming week-end.

So-----! In conclusion, I would say that it would be better for you if you went ahead with your plans & stayed with Tom (This would make Tom much happier) & I will see you ~~over~~ over the week-end.

In other words, sleeps in his room & live with us (Raver & I)

Hi, this is Sam writing.

your Pol. Sci. questions you got from the teaching machine I have

from this week and I'm sure they would help me a great deal.

Now that my other-half put his

Mon Ami Silas,

Dearest Silas how are you, other than that? First one spells damn, damn not dam. Second, Si dear if I were you I wouldn't ask those "two stone faced statues" for the money to buy a blazer. Now that the serious talk is over, let's get down to the lighter side of Penn State vs. Silas. Today I had my french exam and now I am going to drop out of school via the eight floor in Pollock A. I cried all night, I even had your bed next to mine. When you didn't show up I became extremely emotional. Don, Rich, Dave, Lee, and I were waiting for the Silas grand entrance. But no Si, so I decided to call you. And the feeling was grand, hearing your melodious bird-like voice, you happy boy you! Si, one of these days I'll send you a picture of Lee's and mine room.

Don's jackets aren't bad but they are basicly the same. Whatever Don's buys he always buys two. I think his taste is up his ass. Si, back to your first letter. your still up to your old tricks. Pouting will get you nowhere, I know I tried many times. Guess what? You, Don, and Lee got your tickets for Stop the World- ... today. I still haven't gotten my ticket for Little Me. Your tickets cost $13.40. You better get on the good side of your parents. If I get a bid this term You can have my room contract for a mere $500 a term, doesn't that sound reasonable? Earl is still as finkey as ever, and he still hasn't answered your letter. I will write you later in the week. Here are a few bits of P.S.U. pour vous - ooops, tu.

Ps. Thanks for the ad.

Lucas, (the screwed!)

We all know the bad news, and it was a ~~terrible~~ disappointment to everyone. I'd give you some advice, but in case your parents might be reading this I'll just say "give and take it" for in a few weeks you'll be back!

I would have written sooner, but I've been taking exams for the last weeks or so — taking them not studying for them as some of my marks have proven!

As to my French is the only piss. I got a "D" in the exam. My prof. is Sepelley & is she a "Bastard"! As for my other grades things run from a "B-" in Porg to a "B+" in Pol. Sc.

In Pol. Sc. our text is "The Amer."

Fed. Govt, and I've been using, also,
a paper-back called "Leading Constt.
Cases" by Bartholomew. I don't exactly know what you mean by a brief. What we have been doing is studying the Constt.
and some of the important cases which evolved. My prof. is Demw, same prof. that Earl has., but different sections.

Dave received the machine questions and would thank you at this time, but he is busy studying for his Pol. Sc.
mid-term which is to-morrow. His prof. is Reimer. Brewster left the school for a year or so. He is doing some sort of research at another college.

I wouldn't worry about buying a housing contract, I'm ^{sure} in a couple of ~~next~~ weeks there will be someone in Pollock "A" who would want to sell his.

You're probably having a hell of a time trying to translate my English, (I never did get a "A" in penmanship) but if you bare with me for just a few more lines, I'll be finished, your maintnanc.

Dave just interrupted me,
time to eat must run.

I'll write when I get a chance,

Si,

I'm in the middle of studying a French conversation and I thought I would take a break for about the tenth time this evening. I just hate this miserable language and have no motivation to get to work on it.

I want to thank you for mailing up those Political Science questions. I sincerely appreciate it. I had my Pol. Sci. mid term today and as of yet have no comment on it.

No need to tell you how disappointed everyone was last weekend, especially Tom, he was actually counting the hours until your expected arrival.

I had invited up a girl I met during the summer ~~up~~ for that weekend and did absolutely no work, but just enjoyed myself for thirty-six wonderful hours. I'm still trying to catch up on what I didn't do.

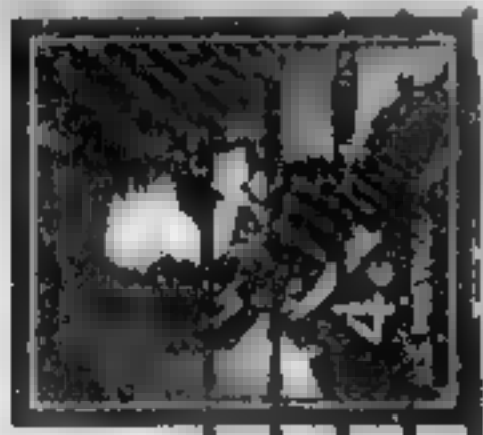

It's hard to believe that the term is half over already. It went so fast, and I'm already looking forward to the Christmas vacation.

I had a fabulous summer and hope to return to Buffalo for a few weeks during the vacation.

Thanks again for what you did for me and I hope to hear from you soon.

Sincerely
Dave

Ho Oye,

I just got back from a weekend at Penn State. It was really great for a change. I lived with Ivan in his apartment, and went to parties at Alpha Sig on Friday and Saturday night. Lynne fixed me up with a girl for Sat night - Tall blond. She ^{Lynne} is going with an Alpha sig pledge. Chip wrote her a letter and said he was coming up for the weekend but she asked him not to, so he didn't. Everything is still the same up there. They have a new Keelers up where the western auto store was, and a branch store of Hurs. I was sitting in the hub with Earl and some girls and happened to mention that no one called Earl'sie-poo anymore. He gave me this horrible look and started to say evil words. Of course I closed my ears because I do not like to hear such noise.

Are you still hiding from civilization up in your room? Nobody seems to have heard from you except that you are still alive (which is an accomplishment) Have you applied for readmission yet? First you ask Leasure, then when he gives you the word you write to admissions, and then housing. (good luck there too)

Froth has been discontinued, I guess it got a little too rank. Ivan is really showing his Jewish tendencies about the whole thing because he and Goodall bought a subscription and he is losing out on a dollar. He says he's thinking about writing a nice long letter to the collegian about it.

I guess you can tell from the typing that I am done with Boot Camp. It was really horrible, and I wouldn't recommend it to anyone, even Ivan. Now I have to go back there for 24 weeks for fire control school. This is not like being a fireman, It involves gobs and gobs of electronics, radar and the like. My address is D. A. Rodgers S.A.
688-29-91
F.T. School USNTC
Great Lakes, Ill.

You are allowed to write to me at that address

Right now I'm on my 2 week leave after boot camp. I leave on the 23rd to catch a train back to Chicago for a half year of sheer hell.

Enough for now, I have to eat.

Doug

Dear Bobby,

A letter from your mother came a few days ago in which she said you had received two 90% and three 95% grades in five lessons back in your 'Poly Si' course. That is fine. She also said you were soon writing to the Dean asking to be re-instituted.

If you would like me to write a letter of recommendation, send me the name and address of the one to whom to write.

Your four years at college are four of the most important years you will live. In them you set the pattern for your future: A strong character and high ideals are put to a vital test. There are all kinds of girls and boys and all kinds of temptations and opportunities; and you are away from home, entirely on your own, to snake choices and decisions. Conformity to what is popular, in vogue, etc. sometimes ruins beyond repair that which was created "a little lower than the angels and was crowned with glory and honor, and given dominion." Choose carefully and always select the best, and always keep yourself clean in mind and body so you will be worthy of the best.

One of my very favorite verses of Scripture and one which has helped me many times is Philippians 4:8 — "Finally, brethren, whatever things are true, whatever things are honest, whatever things are just, whatever things are pure, whatever things are lovely, whatever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things." I hope this beautiful inspiration will help you, too.

It was so good to visit my

families again and, fortunately for me, to see you. You and Margaret and Elizabeth and Don and Russell are very dear to me. Each of you has been richly endowed and has a powerful potential-- you are America's hope; you are the hope of all of us.

In a separate enclosure, I am mailing you a little keepsake
which I long have cherished.
I hope you like it.

Best wishes.

Love,
Aunt Eva

Dear Sir:-

I am writing in behalf of a young friend of mine, Robert Powell, whom I have known for the greater part of his life.

Regretably I learned that he was suspended from college for this term due to some infraction of regulations, exactly what I do not know.

He has told me that he will be eligible for re-admittance to the University at the beginning of the next semester, provided he has testimonial support that his behavior has been exemplary during the intervening time.

Young Robert has always been a fine, well behaved youth to the best of my knowledge. He and his brother were members of my Sunday School Class for about two years - the normal time I have the age group to which they belonged then, and while admitting that membership in such a class does not make the young chaps per se model youths, I do want to stress that Robert was a good student - one who sort of got something from the teachings and as for behavior, I could not fault him. The past fall I have met him several times and though I wondered why he was home so frequently (even though it takes only about four hours from here to State College) it never dawned upon me that he had been suspended until he asked if I would write testifying to his behavior.

I feel he has learned a lesson that I could not teach him, or failed to do so. It took courage for him to approach me, I know it did and tell me his story - not what he did, just the fact that he had been suspended. I admire him for it and may I say he'll be a more careful, obedient young man, respectful, appreciative, humble and willing to make up to you, the University and his parents sufficient evidence that his character will reveal more manly and commendable traits because of the incident. He is a good lad sir, I know it. His behavior at home beyond reproach. Please give him the chance to prove to all of us that he's made of good stock. Thank you.

Mr. Daniel R. Leasure
Re: Robert Powell

Sincerely yours,

Edwin Booth.

Dear Robert:

I am pleased to inform you that the Senate Sub-Committee on Discipline approved your request for reinstatement to the University for the 1963 winter term. The committee expressed the hope that you have benefited from your experience during your suspension; and when you return in January, you will demonstrate evidence of improvement in behavior and a clearly defined growth toward maturity.

Please remember that we will be glad to work with you in achieving a satisfactory adjustment and in helping you with any problems you should like to discuss.

You should write immediately to the Dean of Admissions, 109 Willard, and present a formal request for readmission. We have notified that office of your reinstatement by the disciplinary committee.

Ho:

I will start this parchment by answering all your questions. 1. I am fine, thank you. 2. Carlisle Poo is still Carlisle Poo. His head has swelled slightly since his election as Pres. of his Pledge class, but all in all he is still Carlisle-Poo. 3. Bill has been readmitted & his address is Bill Rheiner, 1516 E. Yerkes St, Phila 50, Pa. 5. Evan and Goodall are certainly well matched. (you could include slob in your well versed descriptions) 6. No, Surprisingly, I have not had enough of the Navy. I intend to take the Navy for all I can (more later). I haven't been kicked out yet, in fact I am class leader! Me, class leader! Ha! 7. I'm out of boot camp now so I'm up to about 23 cigarettes a day. 8. My exact Rank is Seaman Apprentice. That means if I advance in rate 21 times I will be a Fleet Admiral. It's also means if I get busted 1 rank I will be the lowest thing in the world, (next to a reserve) a seaman recruit. In other words I am 2 from the bottom.

As far as hosing the Navy, I plan (if all goes well) to be in till about 1970. First I finish FT school next June or July at which time I will be a qualified electronics technician specializing in missiles. From there I will go into sub school and learn about Polaris missiles (I kinda cream for the idea of wiping out a city by pushing a button). Then I will have the Navy send me to college (year round) to get my bachelor of science in electronics and if I am very lucky I will go for 4 years and grab a masters. Then I will be a commissioned officer and after 3 or 4 years of that I will turn civvie again.

That is how I plan to hose the navy - by getting everything possible and giving them a total of about 4 years at sea.

For the first week of school I got an 86 average. I just hope I can keep it up.

I'm glad to hear that you are pleased with your correspondence courses. I'm still on lesson 13
of Soc 1 (as I was last August) and therefore haven't given the final a try. I get off for Christmas on the 21st and go back the 7th of Jan.
When do you go to P.B.U., maybe I'll drop up to see your nice room
in Nittany. ~~Write~~

School isn't too bad up here, we start at 7:20 and end at 4:30
then we have 4 hrs of homework
which I must get too damn soon.

Chip wrote me a letter saying he wants Lynne back and what do I think his chances are. I told him
it would be a lost cause, then I wrote Lynne and gave her Chips letter, and told her what I told him. So today I got a letter from Lynne saying "Dear Doug,

"I am madly in love with you!"
Things seem to be looking up
as far as my romantic adventures
are concerned. Anyway she sort of screamed for the whole thing.

Must get back to the Salt mine. If the average falls below a 2.5 I'm in trouble, and below 1.5, I'm washed up — again — so —

Cool it

It was the week of finals
And all through the place
The knee socks were hung
For the going home haste

Then all of a sudden there arose such a clatter... That I ran from the suite to see what was the matter... And what did I find to my utter surprise?
Two giant reindeer... And what Lambda Chi's... Now that appeared?
A man who was driving the jolly old giving day... He called to him like to pick up some speed... GIDDIE, DEARIE, AND SWEETIE, INDEED!

Now the fairy tale goes that they passed out of sight... But the spirits were high so they just passed!
Alright... So if ever you find you have Christmas thoughts... And there coming at times when study
you ought...

BE PREPARED TO GAZE FROM THE WINDOW AND SEE... THE LAMBDA CHI'S PROMOTING SUCH GLEE!

Yes I can write. Aren't you surprised?
I am. I guess it is about time it drops
you a line anyway.

I saw Ed after I left you. I called the store and they said she wasn't working. I then called her apartment and we had a chance to get together until I watched her to work. She has a real nice apartment and I know you would have just loved it. I don't think that job was even more beautiful than last but I hated to leave. But I had a flight to catch. Wasn't great!
I will never travel any other way. We were up in the air for only an hour but it was so rust. My parents met me at the airport and then we headed for Tilton. What a vacation after New York, Scranton, and Carbondale. This year gets worse every time I come home and that is
why. Since I have come home I haven't done much of everything. I have written a few letters and gone shopping. I have seen a few of my friends, however most of them have not come home from school. I wish I had some real exciting news to relate but I have nothing.

How was your day in New York? When you write, tell me what took place and what you saw. You are my only connection at the moment to the theatrical world.

N

How is Tom and the rest of the group?
I hope everything turned out O.K.

I can't wait until I go back to see it. We must repeat in the perfect society while at Tenn. State. Don't you agree? I am even anxious to get back to the books and repair the damage of Term 4. I think you know what I mean. I am also anxious to become a brother. Ask Don how he is doing on his black book? This letter is actually for both of you. Aren't you really fortunate?!!

As I said before the news is little but I wish there was more. I hope the Powell family has a merry Christmas and I also hope you will drop me a line. O.K.
So long for now and stay cozy. (Little doubt you won't.)

As Ever
Earl.

P.S. Thanks again for the wonderful time I had at your home the beginning of last week. It was just great!!

"MARS" (ALEXANDER THE GREAT)

Glasgow Art Gallery and Museum Rembrandt Harmensz. Van Rijn

Rembrandt Harmensz. Van Rijn (1606-1669) was Holland's greatest painter and one of the great artists of the world. He left us an intimate view of his life through many excellent self-portraits, which span his happy, luxurious youth to his broken, impoverished old age. The first impression of many of Rembrandt's paintings is one of somberness. But the dark tones Rembrandt favored only serve to give more power and brilliance to the brighter colors.

Settle round your home
On this Christmas, forever more -
And may the ebb of the Season's warmth
Bring you more than just ritual

Merry Christmas says alot...
In the old conventional way.
It says warm fires and falling snow
And a ride on a young child's sleigh

Happy New Years means fun-good times Frites, spirits and such
To start the coming year out right.

Good Afternoon Sir,

Having consulted my chart, I find that I owe you a letter. Therefore I strongly feel that I should commence work on the above-mentioned parchment.

I brought my Tape recorder up with me and find that I am suddenly in great demand, again. God! it is really great to have such a great personality like I have, and be able to attract new friends for the price of $144.44.

How is your roommate? Is he the same as when I met him? He really seems like an interesting case. Oh well - could he possibly be worse than Gucykowski? The answer to that is no - so sweateth it not.

Right now I am studying LCR, RC, LR, and LC circuits - how to find I_T through vectoring, finding the value of ϕ , computing the different values of farads and micro-henries, plus many other exotic things cosines, $\angle\theta$, Ω , L , I , E , Π , ν , etc. Sim ksh!

Have you seen Bill? I was wondering if he committed suicide ypt - after all, being stationed in Nittany - with a roommate yet is enough to warrant suicide.

God damn it, I can't think of anything to write so I shall bring this message to an end with a bang! ~~Bye~~!

stay cool

Dear lovely creatures,

Ho! Dare! Il y a a nasty rumor going around that the drinking age in Jersey is 21-tant pis. South Fallsburg would have been crackers, mais, comme vous savez-c'est la vie. Now on to matters of the heart. How are your tendre young bods. I do hope they are being stimulated by refreshments unmentionable in certain circles (Gilbeys, Haig & Haig, VO, and other related goodies) Maintanant Tom, Don, and I (Pierre) are lounging in the Tower Suite, Chez Powell. In other words we are sitting in the attic, disturbing the bats. Life has become one long grassy road. The Splendor has somehow left the grass. Life has indeed become a tedium. Ah, but for one fleeting glance of your divine physiogonamys. This torn heart of mine is bleeding rivers of tired blood. Allentown will be refreshing to our wilted spirits. You still are planning to go to Allentown, N'est ce pas. Just think, if the Atlantic city jobs don't go over too well you can always join the ~~Strip~~ Strip ~~reunions~~ at aforementioned fair.

Our trip to New York this last week end was wet and expensive, comme d'habitude, but daring, delightful, and somehow had no meaning without your enchanting company. Our itinerary for the day included martinis, brandy alexanders, vodka sours, manhattans, champagne cocktails, and of course, beer.

The United States postal service has done it again.
Tom got the bad news that Penn State would like him
to take an indefinite leave of absence., for circumstances beyond his control. He is working like a beaver on his correspondance courses, so there is still hope.

Budney babes came through like a barrel of shit.
I landed a big old B in that course, If her majesty got an A i think I will consider suicide. Do you know Sue's summer address? Correspondance along these lines would be pleasurable. You will get on this assignment immediately, won't you. Have you gotten any transcripts yet?

Big news in carbondale, or should I say Charbonville, Sjipper (Our female Daschund) is pregnant again. Its only the second time this year. But every time each sperm meets an ovum that means that I get twenty five dollars. Ah yes, c'est la vie. You know the old song, Life is just a bowl des Georges Washington's fruit.

The hour 2 draws steadily near.

I find myself sans une biere

Many tears indeed will flow

Until the Allentown fair we go.

I have enclosed some literature I picked up at the

this manner stop aforementioned frustration.

June 21, 1963
Friday afternoon

Here it is the end of another week of work. At the present time I am sitting on a small filing cabinet in back of my mother's desk and typing on her typewriter. I finish work at four-fifteen, but I can't get a ride home until quarter of five when my mother gets finished. Therefore, I have decided to do something other than to waste my time. Don't be surprised if the typewriter suddenly changes in the middle of the letter; that will mean that I have gone home to finish it. You may be getting quite a few letters in this manner during the summer, as I continue to fill the few unclaimed moments of my vacation.

Send me the addresses of Mac & Jim, you know, the two "guys" from Atlantic City, when you get a chance. I believe Betty is also down there, so send her address if you have it.

I got a letter from Norman yesterday. He has invited me up for a weekend some time this summer, but I don't think I'll be able to make it. Things are quite busy around here. Tonight, in spite of a fabulous cold, I am going to play tennis. I'm playing doubles with George Heitczman, his girl friend Rosie, and Rosie's latest female discovery for me. Norm's letter mentioned that he saw "the other Phi Sigma Iota." Monsieur St. Clair, that is. Jeff went up there for the weekend or something, and on the spur of the moment he decided to stay for the term. Some snap decision, eh what? Jeff-babes has made the fatal plunge, the point of ne pas ~~retour~~ return. He has switched his major from Psych to French. Not highly unexpected of course.

p 2

Monday afternoon

Here I am back again for the second installment of this letter. I know I'll get it finished eventually, but I don't know when.

I got my grade report in Friday's mail. Just as I expected, a 3.2. I haven't had the nerve to call Tom. I imagine he is in the middle of the Battle of the Dropout with his parents, so I'll just wait for him to call.

I got my big passing grade in ROTC, which means that I am finished with that for good. It's such a great feeling. I suppose you two would have the same feeling if you could, you Army majors (chuckle, chuckle).

My mother went down to the shore on Saturday and took the last of the slides in the roll of film. So, we will soon be getting the pictures of the float parade and our production numbers down at Hoyt. I'll send you a print of the whole group shot as soon as I can get them. I don't suppose that will be for another two or three weeks yet.

Mother had a cool experience on the way to the shore. She was going to the cottage of a friend of hers, whipping along Highway 72, when a N.J. State cop way-laid her. Legal charge . . . speeding (59 in a 50 mph zone). Pecuniary ~~charge~~ charge . . . $14 !! Hurt, hurt. Of course it was her first ticket in 28 years of driving. I wish I would do that well.

The Berry family has chosen its summer ~~xxx~~ residence (one week, September vacation, you understand). We are going to Cape Cod, probably staying around Hyannisport.

Maybe we will even see (as they say in the Westerns) The Great White Father in Washington. That is, providing he is not in Washington at the time, and is vacationing at Ye Ole Family Estate. We were at Cape Cod two years in a row around '55 or '56, but, since it was that long ago,...

I think I'd better close now or I'll never finish this letter. See you sometime this summer, maybe.
Wrote this...

Boys,

Today I received my transcript. I flunked Rotc. Got D's in Phy. Sc., Eng., and Phil. You see I was dropped for some good reason. I worked out my correspondence grades - I need two A's to boost the All-U to above a 1.6. That's how it goes. Read the new LOOK - its about students who decide to drop out of colledge - its very enlightening.

This morning I finished Sermons and Soda-Water. And now must read Zoo. 41. I imagine your mother was happy to see me go, I'm afraid I didn't convey too much warmth up in Carbonville - with my cold and all.

On to happier thoughts. Did you hear from Mac and Jim? I'll probably write them today. Before I forget, I got to the mail box first, so mother doesn't know about the grades yet. Okay, I've written you and I cant think of anything else to write about since the 48 hours that we have since parted forever. Must go start on the shity course. I feel like hell and depression is setting in like gangrene. Good - Bye for now.

VENTNOR, N. J. SUMMER
— MUSICAL FESTIVAL —
— MONTH OF AUGUST —

1096

1/
Friday evening
July 19

Hello again, after my long absence at the pen. Last night I sort of wrote myself into exhaustion, whipping off twelve pages to Norman Terry. I don't know how long this will go; certainly not that long, since I hadn't told Norm about our N.Y. trip yet. That little journey itself took up about half the pages. This effort will probably consist of many bits and pieces of unimportant drivel.

First bit of drivel — Jeff's address is just Alpha Zeta. I imagine the post office is State College, not University Park.

2/ Second bit of drivel, which you must have already discovered is the beautiful, full-color snapshot of ~~a~~ seven idiots ~~which~~ with which I would completely deny acquaintance if ever asked, especially with the frivolous one whose bewildered countenance is obscured by the gin bottle.

The prints I had made for Jeff turned out quite well. I will try to write to him and send the pictures this weekend if I get time.

I saw a great program about Beethoven on Walt Disney's show last Sunday. It is in two parts. The second is on this Sunday. We are supposed to go to a picnic just 3/ about the time it is on. This I will fight tooth and nail (the ones left unbitten). I don't particularly want to go to the picnic anyway, and missing this program makes it doubly disastrous for music-starved lil' me. I have been to so many picnics, parties, and neighborhood-get-together-in-the-evening-for coffee hours that I am getting sick of it.

Yesterday was my birthday, and I made a fabulous haul. One hundred lovely green bills. Ah, for more of these wonderful times when loving relatives fork out a grudging subsistence for the coming year. The accounting reads thusly: parents, $10 each; aunt and uncle, $10; grand-father, the usual $'s = yrs. old ($20 this year), plus a $50 bonus (for 4/ good behavior, I guess). Also, George Heitzman gave me a very suave-looking, silver-type cigarette case, for use on very special occasions like afternoons in the HUB.

I just thought of something. I miss Joe Bayer looking over my shoulder whenever I write or read a letter.

I graciously accept your invitation for a weekend in the Pocos. I don't know when I'll be able to come yet. My parents and I are going to Atlantic City for a weekend in August, and our neighbors are taking us down to the horse races at Garden State. So, I'll write to you as I know when I can make it.

In case you weren't informed

5/ by the last post, I did get my room assignment, 27 Hamilton. It is right down the hall from the room we put in for, and is actually better than the one we tried for. Instead of looking in the second story windows of $\Phi\Gamma\Delta$, we have two windows; one faces Waring, the other faces to street. Only those corner rooms in Hamilton have two windows.

In answer to your query, Barbara Streisand was Miss Marmelstein in "I Can Get It for You Wholesale." She is now doing a nightclub act.

I started out the summer by reading quite a bit. That practice came to a screeching halt when I turned ~~lazy~~ lazy. Readings to date

6/ have been Veck - ~~as~~ as in Veck by Bill Veck (~~to~~ a baseball owner, the one who built the scoreboard in Chicago which shoots off fireworks whenever the home team hits a home-run), The Pearl by John Steinbeck, The Bridge at Andau by James A. Michener (story of the Hungarian revolution), Two For the See-Saw by William Gibson (author of The Miracle Worker), A Funny Thing Happened to Me on My Way to the Grave by Jack Douglas (author of My Brother Was an Only Child). I am now completely bogged down in Cap of Gold by John Steinbeck.

Time for bed. I just watched the Phillies pull out a game in the ninth inning, an HR ~~in the~~ with one out and one on base to win 2-1 after trailing the whole game.

So long. Write soon.

Hi Mom Bob.

As usual
my letter is late and I am quite sorry yet I have been quite busy and haven't had a chance to write until now.

I know what your question is, "What the hell has he been doing," so I will answer your question.

I am working in a new restaurant and I do just about everything.
I cook, work on the furniture and run the place in the morning. For the past week
I have been working both day and night. The reason for this is that the girl that works nights has been running around with another guy and her husband caught

them together. ² She is pregnant
by this other guy and her husband had them arrested and they had to go to court yesterday. So she hasn't been to work this past week.
That is not the only reason.
I worked split-shift. My hus and her husband own another restaurant and she has been operating this while his wife has been operating the one where I work. Well last Monday they had a big fight
because he had been drinking and taking tranquilizers.
He strangled her and she called the police. They came to her house and sent her back to hospital. All week he has threatened to kill her and her new boy friend. He accused her of running around and she told me the following: She said she doesn't have time to sleep in her own bed, nevermind someone else. (Quite good!!) And still the stuff we have is a drunk and he won't last long. Put all this together and I practically run the place and am my own boss.

This is my job for the summer
and it will get me back to school. That is all it care.
Wouldn't you say that it is quite an interesting summer job? She asks me for all this legal advice and thus I am entering my major prematurely.

4
Telling us
still the hole it always was
and it can't stand the place
or most of its hypothetical occupants. I miss school and Lambert this very, very, much.
I am sure you feel the same way.

I have had some good social times and they have given me the strength to stay home for my last summer. I went to Boston one night with a bunch of guys and raised hell for a while. Roly was home for a week and we were constantly together. We went out to Amherst and went to a Country

Club for drink and dance. We also went out a couple of times during the week. The rest of the time we talked and I had fabulous time.
He invited me to New York
for a weekend and I am definitely going. I am not sure when during the summer.
I have been to four cocktail parties on the lake and have enjoyed them enormously. Last Sat. night we had a big wet house party and there were four girls from Switzerland present.
Could they speak French? We had a Stumhard Ball and was very much like a fraternity party. We sang and danced then had pizza with a pizza

light in between making the yegg
It was a good night. I have also been playing golf once or twice a week with my brother-in-law.
He played eighteen holes today. I just love the game and am getting quite good. By the way I got an A in Golf instruction and was quite pleased. I got a 2.3 for my Spring term and now have a 2.3 all 21. I did get a B in my govern. course and was pleased with that. My Div Zoology pulled my average down but I am looking forward to a good junior year. Oh & to look at State I should have never come home. This has been my summer so far.

Bob, will you
please send me Reg's address.

I do want to write to her. Tell me what you have been doing and say hi to Brother Don and your mother, father, and brother for me.
Thank them again for their wonderful hospitality. Please don't take as long as I did to answer your letter and I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Brother Earl.

P.S. Remember you're only a pledge. Ha! Ha!

Cher Si,

J'étais très surpris et heureux de recevoir votre lettre! Beaucoup de choses m'est arrivé depuis le dernier fois que je vous parlais. Je recevais une lettre de Lee et je n'ai pas encore répondu. Ne le dites pas que je vous écris si vite.

Bien, aujourd'hui... Je ne désire pas parler de français cinquante quatre — vous ~~auriez~~ auriez du recevoir un A, aussi. Mais, vous savez, "C'est la vie!" (Peut-être Budney m'aimait un peu — il était très généreux).

Maintenant, pas dans l'automne, je me spécialise en le français — dans le college d'éducation. Les sujets que je prends maintenant sont tous pour l'éducation — Speech 200, History 21, Sec. Ed. 443 (quoi?), et Ed. Ser. 115. Dans l'automne, je prendrai français 301, anglais quelque chose — c'est Shakespeare, psychologie 13, et phys. ed. Peut-être je prendrai français 53, aussi, mais ce serait 13 crédits et c'est difficile, n'est-ce pas ? J'ai beaucoup de crédits à prendre pour l'éducation. Je pense maintenant que j'aurais dû aller en liberal arts.

C'est assez pour l'école. A cette étage, je le déteste. Je suis très triste.

C'est ~~une~~ une histoire très longue, mais un weekend je suis allé à Ocean City pour la voir, et j'ai resté à sa maison.

J'ai fait des choses que ses parents n'aimaient pas et les diables ne me permettent pas de la voir de nouveau. Peut-être les parents de Bobi ne la laisseront pas retourner à Penn State dans l'automne, même. Ils sont vraiment diables et ils me dégoutent beaucoup.

Je lui (à Bobi) écrivais une lettre il y a presque deux semaines, mais je n'ai pas reçu une réponse. Comme j'ai dit, je suis très triste. Peut-être je devriez écrire de la poésie romantique — "Je ne suis rien, je ne suis qu'un simple solitaire...

et toute ça.)

J'ai grand faim, et c'est l'heure du dîner maintenant. Je retournerai tout de suite.

Je suis de retour — avec mon estomac plein de la nourriture. Bien, cet après midi j'ai Ch. Ser. 115. Cette course est très facile. J'ai reçu un A avec no sweat sur le premier livre bleu. Si j'ai de la chance, je ferai le Dean's list cette term. J'ai une chienne pour le speech 200, cependant, et peut-être je recevrai un C dans cette course.

Cet été, je serai fini sur le 27 août. J'espère que j'irai à Ocean City dans le septembre pour passer une petite vacance. Je sais bien que je ne verrai pas Boris, mais j'aime la plage en tout cas, et toutes les jeunes filles avec les "two-piecers".

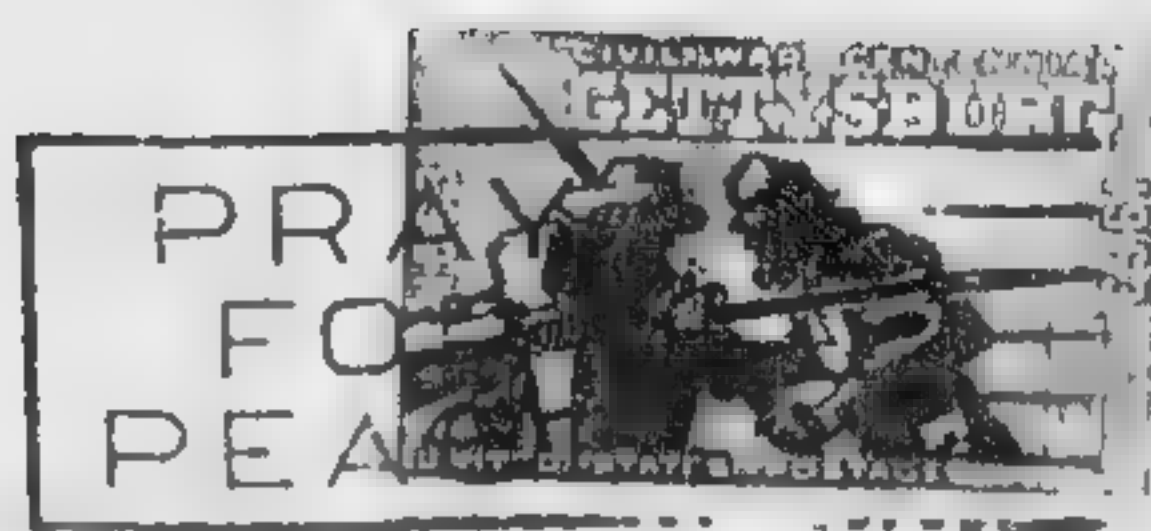

J'ai vu "Drma la Douce" — et je suis d'accord, c'était un film très excellent (et très amusant, aussi).

Bien, je commence à avoir mal à la tête. Je crois que je fume trop. Je suis

sur que j'ai fait beaucoup de fautes dans la grammaire, mais j'espère que
vous ~~pourrez~~ pouvez lire cette lettre.
Ecrivez tout de suite — j'ai trouvé
votre lettre très amusant.

Un fingué,
Jeff

Hastily Thursday eve
August 1

Hang on to your grasscutters' ~~hate~~ hate, for the Berry mind is about to articulate a fabulous scheme which will leave you in a state of wonder and awe. (Note: approximately 80% of all Berry schemes never work out.) The entire scheme took upwards of ~~the~~ twenty seconds to plan. Nevertheless, it is completely foolproof (a statement which your parents will soon prove fallacious, undoubtedly). But I will begin at the beginning.

Today I got a letter from one Monsieur St. Clair (see "Highlights of the St. Clair note" later in this letter). He had, it seems, found out that Peg and Janet are working in Atlantic City for

2/ the summer. This is step number one of my plan, and I think you may be getting the idea already. Here the plan splits into two alternatives, so I'll just go ahead with both of them. If I come up to Carbondale, there is only one weekend I can make it. That is the weekend of Aug. 24. That, of course, is assuming I go with my parents to the shore ~~of~~ on the previous weekend. However, if I don't go with them, I will have two free weekends. I am sure that I can borrow my grandfather's car on ~~at~~ either or both weekends. Therefore here is my first alternative. Ta-ta-ta-ta (that was a flourish of trumpets, by the way). While mes parents sont en la Cité d'Atlantique,

3/ A journey to Carbondale for the weekend (Aug. 17-18). Then (trumpets re-enter) ~~on~~ on the following week-end, Aug 24-25, the Powells travel to Easton sometime Friday (I can get off at noon), Mr. Berry picks up grandfather's car, Powells & Berry make a flying ~~at~~ catch of Mlle. Susan Maynes at Springfield and travel on to Atlantic City, where the previously warned Mlles. Mathews and Mc Ginley have found a room for three and have put up a cot in their own room for the fourth. We can figure out what these sleeping combinations will be later on. ~~Now~~ Now take a deep breath. Ready. Now that you have read the previous plan four times and

is the second plan. Since my parents are already going to A.C. on the 17th possibly we could reverse the dates, ~~so~~ with their driving us down to A.C. on the 17th and my coming to Carbondale on the 24th. This would entail Susan's finding her own way down there on the 17th (since my father would definitely disapprove of the long detour), and it would also mean a lot faster planning, for instance in getting a room. ~~As~~ As it is, with the 24th as D-Day, we will have to do it in a big hurry.
Tonight I will write to Peg's mother to find out her address and make sure they will still be there by then.

5/ Write to me as soon as you possibly can if it is all right. Also, write to Susan (address later in letter) to let her in on it. As soon as I get your letter I'll write to Peg and Jan. (They will be the last to know, of course.) If they can't find us a nice cheap room somewhere in the city there is always the Rambler station wagon there as passable accommodations.

If this falls through, I'll ~~see you~~ go to the shore on the 17th and see you on the 24th. So move fast!!! We only have a few weeks.

Now on to other things, such as Jeff's letter. Unbelievably, he has broken up with Bobi! Or
